

Resort Destroyed, Another Is Damaged By Shandaken Fires

Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the large Glenbrook Hotel at Shandaken early this morning and a second Town of Shandaken resort was badly damaged by fire late Monday afternoon when Kahil's Rainbow Lodge at Mt. Tremper was badly damaged.

Several fire companies from the area responded to both alarms after the blazes had been discovered by passers-by. Both places were vacant at the time the fires were discovered.

Cold Hampers Firemen

No one was injured at either fire but firemen had difficulty with frozen hoses and suffered frostbite of hands in the cold when temperatures fell to the teens. Water on highways near the scene of the fires froze and made necessary sanding operations.

The fire at the Kahil's Rainbow Lodge, the scene of a disastrous fire several years ago, was discovered by Larry Murray of Lake Hill while returning home on a late school bus from Ontario School. Kahil's Rainbow Lodge is located on the Mt. Tremper-Willow road about a mile from the intersection with Route 28.

Checked in Hotel Lounge

When the fire was discovered it was in the vicinity of the kitchen wing of the main building. The fire was confined to the kitchen wing and the upstairs sleeping rooms. Firemen were able to stop the fire at the hotel lounge which also had some fire, smoke and water damage.

It was reported members of the Kahil family had been at the premises during the afternoon but had left some time before the fire was discovered. The lodge had been rented to a ski club for the winter months.

Members of the ski club had been at the premises over the weekend but no one was on the premises when the fire was discovered. Mr. and Mrs. Kahil, after renting the lodge for the winter season, rented an apartment in Phoenixia and were reported to have left for Phoenixia several hours before the fire was discovered.

Four Companies Respond

Four fire companies responded and battled the blaze, pumping water from the creek which flows across the road from the lodge premises.

Ontario Hosed Company of Mt. Tremper responded with a pumper; M. F. Whitney Hosed Company of Phoenixia responded with their new Ford pumper; Woodstock No. 1, from the village, responded with a pumper and tank truck under direction of Deputy Chiefs Duncan Wilson and Robert Brei'nslein, and Woodstock No. 3, of Lake Hill, also went to the fire with pumper and tank truck under direction of Capt. Alfred Os-

Saugerties Adds Festive Flower Boxes on Poles

The Village of Saugerties which always takes on a storybook quality at Christmas has added an additionally festive feature this year with the colorful flower boxes, overflowing with Christmas greens, which have been attached to the top of street signposts everywhere. The flower boxes have lent a particular charm to the entire holiday atmosphere in the village and so successful have they been that plans now call for the boxes to remain a permanent feature on the streets of Saugerties.

As the Saugerties Village Board met Monday night, members heard Street Commissioner Maurice Clements report that he has received a landslide of favorable comments on the flower boxes. The village is indebted to Superintendent of Public Works William Voerg and his crew, who shouldered the burden of erecting the large, dark green

JUST A REMINDER—No, you readers didn't miss this snowstorm last night. Actually, we're using this as a gentle reminder that Old Man Winter makes his official 1965 debut tonight at 8:41 o'clock with the postscript that all of us can expect some of these Winter Wonderland scenes before the robins re-visit us in the spring. ## Forecasters Differ On Winter's Force

By JERRY BUCK

If you want to know what winter holds—it comes tonight—just ask a caterpillar or a perch, look at the moon or consult the almanac. You'll get a different answer every time.

If caterpillars speak your language, it'll be a run-of-the-mill winter. The perches say it will be mild at first—so does the moon, although the rockets kind of get in the way.

Sees Bitter Time

But the fog-counters, volcano-readers and the almanacs predict a bitter time of it with more than enough snow to keep even the hardiest of skiers happy.

When winter comes schussing in tonight it's likely to find more pine needles than snow on the ground. But, those resorts where snow has fallen are packing them in.

In Miami, at resorts of a different sort, vacationers are hoping to get brown under the sun while their winterbound neighbors turn green with envy and blue from the cold.

Winter comes officially at 8:41 p.m. (EST) today, hours after darkness will have fallen on the day of the year with the least amount of daylight. If it's any compensation, Venus will attain her greatest brilliancy.

Going Great

Ski lodges are going great in Colorado, New Mexico, upper New England and California—where some winters the resorts never open for lack of snow. In other places, the bare ground isn't luring many skiers.

In the weather predicting business, there are as many ways of arriving at the wrong conclusion as there are snowflakes in a blizzard.

The Old Farmer's Almanac predicts 91 inches of snow for the winter season (starting Nov. 1), which is 26.6 inches above normal. The almanac also predicts temperatures will average 33.67—3.5 degrees below normal.

In the upstate New York hamlet of Marlton, George Casabonne, 79, known locally as Cousin George, says the winter will "not be too bad." Casabonne bases his predictions on moon signs and confesses to a little trouble reading them this year because of "those darned rocket shots and Sputniks."

Read Perch

Air Assaults Move Closer to Haiphong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. planes brought the air war on North Viet Nam closer to Haiphong in the past 24 hours. A spokesman said they unleashed their bombs and rockets only 12 miles from the country's major port and paid a return call on the Uong Bi power station, which supplies electricity to Haiphong and Hanoi.

The Communists sent up several missiles against the U.S. Air Force and Navy planes but they missed their mark, the spokesman said. The American pilots spotted some MIGs over North Viet Nam, but the Communist jets did not attack the faster U.S. planes.

Record 52 Assaults

Air Force pilots made 52 assaults over the North, dropping 115 tons of 750-pound bombs and firing rockets and cannon as well.

Three fighter-bombers were shot down by ground fire, U.S. spokesmen reported, and only one of the pilots was rescued.

In the South, a big C130 troop transport crashed near the Tuy Hoa air base on a resupply mission. Viet Cong ground fire drove off rescue helicopters, and it was not immediately known how many men were aboard.

U.S. infantrymen rescued two American construction men and a Vietnamese driver from Viet Cong kidnapers early today when the Communist unit stumbled into a GI ambush.

Fourth Captive Killed

A fourth captive, a Dutchman, was killed by the Viet Cong before they fled into a forest alongside a road near Di An, 15 miles northeast of Saigon.

Navy planes from the carrier Kitty Hawk were aloft at noon today and bombed a major highway bridge just north of Haiphong in the deepest penetration yet of the Haiphong-Hanoi industrial complex. Spokesmen said they scored five direct hits.

Earlier, the Kitty Hawk's planes attacked the Uong Bi power station, 14 miles northeast of Haiphong, following up a raid last Wednesday by a flight of Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs.

The Air Force pilots claimed their strikes "the closes" until them to Haiphong, knocked out the plant with bull-eye hits, cutting off 25 per cent of Haiphong's power and a third of Hanoi's.

Spokesmen gave no immediate explanation for the return visit but said the Navy pilots reported unloading their bombs in the target area. Reconnaissance showed sections of Haiphong and Hanoi still without electricity, the spokesmen said.

F105 Crashes

An Air Force F105 took a burst of ack-ack and crashed into the Gulf of Tonkin. The pilot, Capt. John S. Rutledge, Jr., of Mount Morris, N.Y., was picked up within 10 minutes by an amphibious landing craft.

Other Burglaries

Other burglaries within the past two months included the theft of $4,400 from Eleven Main Street, plus several watches, bonds and other securities. Police said the burglary was committed on a Sunday when the restaurant was not open. An office safe was cracked.

Both a safe and a cash register were reported pried open at Andy's Furniture Company, 86 Broadway in October and some $2,000 was reported taken.

To Erode Support See Peace Feelers as Red Plan

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Recent Vietnamese Communist propaganda suggests the possibility that "peace feelers" are part of a psychological campaign to erode American and world public support of U.S. policy, in preparation for an upsurge of political warfare in South Viet Nam.

Exaggerate U.S. Protests

The Viet Cong's Liberation Radio couples a "we-can't-lose" propaganda campaign in South Viet Nam with highly exaggerated descriptions of various protest demonstrations around the world, and particularly in the United States.

In America, these broadcasts say protests have risen to unprecedented intensity and have become "the most violent struggle in U.S. history," which has left the Johnson administration "extremely embarrassed and fearful."

Hints from North Viet Nam thus may have little to do with any real intention to negotiate on terms acceptable to the United States. Rather these "feelers" may be intended to add to the Johnson administration's troubles by placing it in the position of rejecting peace overtures.

This hypothesis becomes credible against the background of recent Viet Cong propaganda. This indicates Communist agents now can be expected to mount strong efforts to bring

Aiken Advocates Close Look at Any Peace Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said today the United States must pursue diligently any Viet Nam peace feelers — no matter how tenuous they may appear.

"The alternative to negotiations may be a long war, costly in lives and national resources," Aiken said in an interview. He is the senior Republican in the Senate and a member of the Foreign Relations Committee.

While the Vermont senator was emphasizing the need to pursue peace feelers, a leading House Republican, Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, praised the Johnson administration for stepping up bombing in Viet Nam and urged greater use of U.S. seapower in the Viet Nam war.

"They've decided to escalate the war on the ground," he said in an interview. "We think greater consideration should be given to a Kennedy-type quarantine, which we think will bring about the national goal of unconditional discussions with the North Vietnamese."

The Wisconsin congressman referred to the type of tight naval blockade President John F. Kennedy set up around Cuba during the missile crisis of 1962.

Other Republican leaders have spoken in favor of such a technique in Viet Nam.

Laird said President Johnson

Local Boards Step Up Inductions and Exams

Ulster County's Draft Board is boosting its quota of men for inductions and physical examinations in January apparently to meet manpower demands for the Viet Nam War, it was learned today.

Raymond W. Lown, coordinator of Selective Service Local Boards 18 and 19, confirmed a report that the draft boards are stepping up both inductions and pre-induction physical examinations next month.

Inductions for January will total 39 men compared with 28 this month, and Lown said 246 men, many of them married without children, will be ordered to take pre-induction physical examinations next month.

"Until now," Lown said, "we have been ordered to send two or three bus loads of men to Albany for pre-induction physical examinations each month, but in January we have been ordered to send six busloads of men for the physical examinations."

Lown said the buses each carry

41 men so the shipment of men to Albany next month for physical examination will total 246 compared with 82 to 123 in previous months.

Dutchess County also is stepping up inductions and the call of men for physical examinations. Mrs. Julia Lawton, coordinator for the two Dutchess County Draft Boards, said 66 men will be inducted in January compared to 35 this month, and 400 men, many married without children, will be ordered to Albany for pre-induction physical examinations. That is more than twice the 168 who have either taken physical examinations or are scheduled to undergo them at the armed forces center in Albany prior to Dec. 31.

The largely increased draft calls and orders for physical examinations came from Poughkeepsie despite reports from armed forces recruiters there of increased voluntary enlistments in many branches of the service.

Some of the men called for physical examinations next month will face induction in February, it was reported.

Police Name Crespino, Hall, Krom Detectives

Police Chief Robert F. Murphy today announced promotion by the police board of three patrolmen to the rank of detective.

They are Wilmont Hall, John Crespino and Floyd Krom, all of whom have worked as acting detectives.

Hall and Krom were commended by the police board in 1964 for their work which resulted in arrests on narcotic charges, and Crespino has headed the Kingston Patrolmen's Association and the Hudson Valley Police Conference, and was also honored by the Kiwanis Club in its "patrolman of the year" award in 1960.

Appointments were approved by the police board at a meeting today.

All of the three appointed have military service records.

Hall was named a provisional patrolman on Jan. 1, 1958 and received permanent appointment in September of that year. Krom was appointed to the department in June, 1953, and Crespino in March, 1954.

Appointment of the three brings the detective division to a force of nine men plus Lt. Lemuel F. Howard, who heads it. The three are to go on regular detective duty Jan. 1

Sandra Dee Last To End Contract Tie With Studio

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Something of a milestone in Hollywood history passed entirely without notice recently. Sandra Dee ended her exclusive contract with Universal.

What's so historical about that? Just this: Sandra Dee was the last big-name movie star to remain under contract to a major studio. When her period of servitude ended, it marked the complete finish of the era of stars as contract players.

Twenty years ago, all but a handful of the major film stars were bound exclusively to studios. Today, not one is.

If Sandra seemed impressed by her place in history, it wasn't noticeable. She was much more concerned with preparing for Christmas and her young son's birthday, as well as her departure this week for England, where she will film her first movie as an independent, "Kaleidoscope."

Her long-range concern is building a career for herself as a grown-up actress. I detected a trace of bitterness about her departure from the home lot.

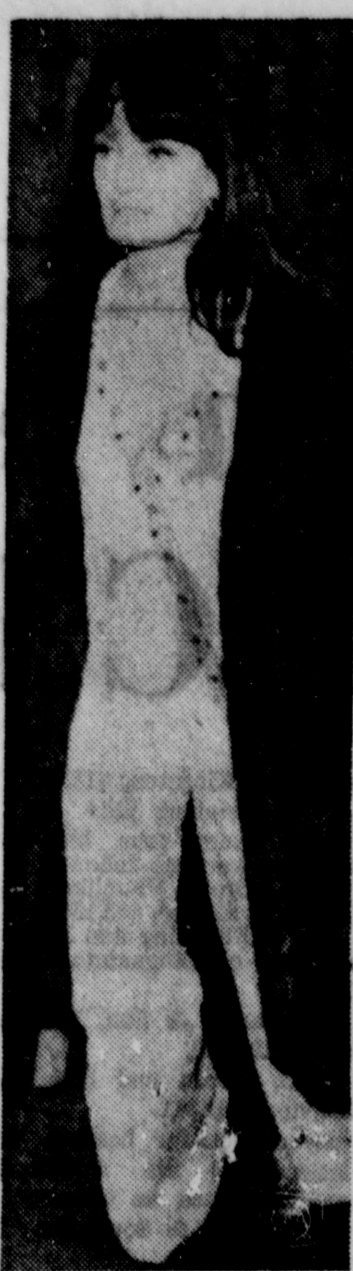

"I thought they were my friends," she remarked, speaking of her Universal bosses. "But I found out on the last picture ('A Man Could Get Killed') that I was simply a piece of property to them. I begged them not to make me do the picture. But they insisted."

So I spent a miserable four months in Lisbon, little fishing villages and in Rome, making a picture that should have taken eight weeks. We had two changes of directors, and I ended up playing 'Come September' all over again."

"Come September" was the film on which she met her husband, singer Bobby Darin. She played a wide-eyed and vulnerable teen-ager, and that's just what she is trying to get away from now.

"I could never do it at Universal," she commented. "They just can't think of me as grown-up."

Quick homemade soup: mix canned cooked dried white beans with diced leftover ham and canned beef broth. Add fresh flavor with minced parsley and finely grated carrot.

SHOW STOPPER—Showgoer Marisa Mell turned out to be a show stopper herself at a premiere in Paris. The Austrian actress showed up at the theater in a costume featuring a full-length fur coat over a low-cut blouse topping loosely cut pants.

Today in History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Tuesday, Dec. 21, the 355th day of 1965. There are ten days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1620, the Pilgrims anchored their ship Mayflower off what is now Plymouth, Mass. They had been sailing along the rock-bound coast since reaching Cape Cod on Nov. 11.

On this date
In 1776, Benjamin Franklin arrived in Paris on a mission for the new U.S. government.

In 1804, the English statesman, Benjamin Disraeli, was born.

In 1898, radium was discovered by Pierre and Marie Curie.

In 1943, British troops fought their way into the Adriatic stronghold of Ortona.

In 1945, Gen. George Patton died of injuries received in an auto accident in Germany.

Ten years ago—All 12 passengers and five crewmen died when an Eastern Airlines Constellation crashed at Jacksonville, Fla.

Five years ago—Israeli Premier David Ben-Gurion appeared before his parliament to deny Israel was developing the capacity to build atomic bombs with French aid.

One year ago—Rain-swollen rivers started flooding in California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada and Idaho.

Faces Bright Yule

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Jong Sung, an 8-year-old Korean boy, will have a brighter Christmas this year because of 114 "adopted fathers" at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Jong Sung was chosen as a foster child by members of the 19th company of the brigade of midshipmen under the Foster Parents' Plan.

A special Christmas package is going to Seoul, including, among other things, a sewing machine to help his mother supplement the meager income she now gets from selling homemade bread to support herself and four children.

The Other Day

An acquaintance explained how the practice of sending Christmas cards began. In 1843 a fellow by the name of Henry Cole in London, England, dreamed up the idea and was the first one to send card greetings to his friends. Now we hear there are more than 3 billion mailed every Christmas in our country alone. Coles first card had three panels, the center one showing a family gathering, and the two sides depicting the Christmas tradition of feeding and clothing the needy. The simple wording on his card was, "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year" and that is exactly what we wish to you . . . Merry Christmas to all!

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Where is all that money coming from for all that Christmas shopping? People are crowding the stores and buying higher-priced items and spending more than ever before.

A lot of it may be going on the cuff to be paid for after. But this year people have more money in their pockets and bank accounts than ever before.

Finances Heftier

And they are parting with it, some because their own personal finances are heftier, some because they believe the war in Viet Nam will set off a boom like the Korean War did, some because they think goods are going to be higher priced in the future and better be bought now.

Back of all this feeling of well-being are such things as record personal incomes, more jobs at higher pay, and orders pouring into the factories which seem to guarantee that prosperity will be around for awhile.

Personal income has made a big gain this fall. In November it was running at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $345.6 billion. All signs point to a further advance this month. That's a lot of money to spend.

Wages and salaries account for $370 billion of it, up $3.1 billion from October. Of the November advance, factory payrolls account for a gain of $1.4 billion to $120.2 billion.

Traced to Stock Gains

Much of the buying of high-priced goods in the stores today may be traced to the big gains this year in cash dividend payments on stocks. Merchants say sales of luxury goods often follow the ups and downs of the dividend rates.

This year dividends are running 10 per cent above a year ago, for a total so far of $15.6 billion. This month is seeing a flood of extras or year-end payments. They are expected to push the total well above $16 billion.

Store buying is likely to reflect guesses on how families will fare next year as well as how they are making out currently.

Further Advance Due

Many signs point to a further advance in the general economy. Many of these indicators are too esoteric for most families to pay much attention to.

But here are some down to earth ones:

Factory workers take cheer that the backlog of factory orders for durable goods has risen to $61.3 billion. Most industry groups reported moderate increases in November. For many workers that statistic can be translated into steady jobs for some weeks or months to come.

Those in the construction trades also have good news as Christmas draws near. Prospects for more contracts and more work next year are brightening. Corporations are planning to spend more next year on building new plants or expanding old ones.

And, the fairly sluggish housing construction business is having a year-end pickup. Housing starts in November ran 9 per cent ahead of October to reach a seasonally adjusted annual rate of 1,534,000 units, the highest it's been since June. Home builders hail the gain as the healthiest in a long time.

Match Point Play Differs

By JACOB Y. SON

1965 Vanderbilt Cup Winners Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

One of the basic principles of match-point play is that you take your risks on the basis of match points to be gained as against match points to be lost.

In rubber bridge you take your risks on the basis of points to be gained against points to be lost.

Today's hand would present no problem to a rubber bridge player. He would win the heart opening in dummy and draw trumps. Then he would lead a club from his hand and play dummy's ten spot. Assuming that East won the trick and returned a heart, our rubber bridge player would win that trick and lead to dummy's ace of clubs in hope of dropping the other honor. If that finesse lost and East returned a heart, South would have thrown away one trick worth 720 points. If it worked he would have gained one trick worth only 30 points.

Why would he take this risk? Because he would have seen that every pair in the room would be in four spades and that the match-point gain involved in the play would be the same as the match-point loss but the finesse for that second club honor would be twice as likely to succeed as to fail and that even if it failed, East might not have a heart to lead back to his partner.

Ex-Carlino Aide To Join Levitt

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — In a change of political alliance, Henry D. Paley will join the staff of State Comptroller Arthur Levitt, a Democrat.

Paley had been a key assistant to former Republican Assembly Speaker Joseph Carlino. An informed source told the Associated Press Monday that the change would be announced later this month, to take effect Jan. 2.

Paley, of Waterford, was director of information for the Assembly Republican majority and served as Carlino's press secretary.

He will serve on Levitt's staff as public information officer for the State Department of Audit and Control at an annual salary of $17,000.

That post is now held by William Scheeter of Woodstock, who is slated to become public relations director for the Democratic State Committee.

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Broadcasting Co.'s vule gift to the housewives of the nation seems to have been two new daytime audience participation games. They arrived Monday, about as welcome as a box of hand-painted souvenir neckties.

First, there was something called "Supermarket Sweepstakes," in which husbands, brothers-in-law and other sneaker-clad representatives of lucky housewives raced through a supermarket loading into shopping carts as much merchandise as they could grab within an allotted time period.

innovation is a "big thing" with us, too!

Discovery of a plan to free millions of people from worry about hospital bills might seem like innovation enough.

To us, it was only a beginning.

In the three decades since we first offered this new concept in community service, Greater New York's Blue Cross has originated scores of ideas for extra benefits for our 7,500,000 members. Two of our most recent innovations:

Home Care enables convalescing patients to leave the hospital sooner—if their doctor agrees—then receive services and medicines at home. Now in operation at 27 New York hospitals, results to date have proved highly rewarding: patients themselves have saved an estimated average of $396 each. And more needed hospital beds have been released.

Blood Benefits: Blue Cross, working in cooperation with the Community Blood Council of Greater New York, is the first to offer another new money-saving benefit—cost-free blood replacement and processing.

All that's needed for eligibility by the Blue Cross member is an acceptable blood donor program in his group—through the Red Cross or any other agency participating with the Community Blood Council. Direct subscribers also can easily arrange to qualify themselves and their families.

In addition to the benefits to our subscribers, this new plan provides major relief to the community as a whole by helping to solve the serious shortage of available blood in the New York area.

You're in the best of company with Blue Cross—the finest protection any company can provide for its employees.

TRIUMPHANT RENDEZVOUS

When an astronaut cried, "Twenty feet — we did it!" he signaled a momentous achievement, one which seems all the more remarkable the more it is contemplated. For here were two manned capsules, each no bigger than a couple of telephone booths in tandem, making contact in limitless space after having been separately flipped into orbit. It was comparable to dispatching a couple of two-man submarines from New York and Liverpool and having them meet a month or so later at a predetermined point in the South Pacific.

That historic rendezvous, and the subsequent maneuvers at even closer than 20 feet, constitute a triumph for American science and space technology. In a larger sense, the feat was a testimonial to the wondrous powers of man, that creature of whom the psalmist sang long ago, "Thou hast made him a little lower than the angels."

The two capsules, sent up from Cape Canaveral more than a week apart, made their rendezvous 180 miles above the Philippine Islands half a world away. Hurling through airless space at about 17,500 miles per hour, they nudged so close together that the men in one little space boat could see the others through their window. It was a moment such as has never before been recorded. And it was a foretaste of that moment to come when a man in a tiny shell will zoom up from the moon's surface and rejoin the mother spacecraft for the long journey back to the earth.

This was the great reason for the experiment so gloriously concluded. The space rendezvous technique is vital to the success of the lunar mission. It also will be useful in many other ways. With that meeting high above the Philippines, our space program passed a most significant milestone.

NATO is getting deeply concerned about the threat posed by Communist China — which gives NATO something in common with Communist Russia.

BLOSSOMS OF LIGHT

It is the season of light. In glittering array the lights of the Christmas season sparkle throughout the community. The incandescent light is king.

Trees that are naked of leaves have sprouted blossoms of colored bulbs. Evergreens wear mantles of electric color that aid to the sometime glitter of new-fallen snow. It seems that more homes than ever in the area are glamorous with Christmas lights at their entrance.

It doesn't matter if the nose reddens or fingers grow numb as the lights are put in place. What counts is the spirit, and the effect.

A view of the Christmas light kingdom is worth a special trip to see. From a vantage point overlooking the community, the sight is magnificent. If the magic of a child's Christmas ever really touched an adult, it could be when he looks at the displays of holiday lights.

SUPERMARKET PROWL

In some quarters, it is held that no red-blooded, all-wool-and-a-yard-wide, genuine horsehide, Grade A he-man would venture into a supermarket to do the family grocery shopping. This may be true. Our acquaintance is confined largely to Grade B he-men, most of whom have never so much as shot a charging moose.

Men who feel that roaming the aisles of a supermarket is somehow unmanly are, however, cheating themselves of rather a pleasant experience. The supermarket prowl is one of those small but gratifying plusses that civilization offers as a kind of antidote for its disadvantages.

One wanders at leisure, up cereals, down soups, on and on past hundred of goodies to boggle the mind and whet the appetite. Now and then a man can shush his con-

CONTROLLING "OFFENSIVE" WAR

For a long time now I have had in my desk a "peace" paper written by Howard G. Kurtz, a former airman, and his wife, the Rev. Harriet B. Kurtz, who collectively call themselves "War Control Planners, Inc." The notion of the Kurtzes is that modern science is approaching the point at which it would be possible to "two-platoon" the military capability of any big power. Our President, so the Kurtzes aver, "requires not one but two distinct military capabilities. In the same sense that a victorious football coach must have superior defense power, and in addition must have a quite different superior forward power."

Continuing this line of thought, the Kurtzes advocate a general pooling of the sum total of the big powers' "forward power" with an international "war safety control board," presumably under some such body as the U.N. But, just to make sure that the international peace-keeping body would not misuse the tremendous force at its disposal, the Kurtzes would let each separate nation retain individual control of its "superior defense power."

The idea is a titillating one, and the only reason why I have not hitherto commented on it is that, for the life of me, I haven't been able to visualize a "defense power" that stands apart from "forward power." But if it were possible to develop a foolproof anti-missile missile system the Kurtzes' argument would take on a certain plausibility.

Alas for the Kurtzes, a committee of the White House Conference on International Cooperation has urged that the United States seek a three-year moratorium with the Soviet Union on the building of an anti-missile defense system. For some reason that is totally outside normal human logic, Jerome B. Wiesner, a former White House Science adviser, thinks the effort to perfect an anti-missile missile would lead to a "new panic" in the arms race. According to the Wiesner way of thinking, the way to "panic" a population is to provide it with all the "superior defense power" that it can possibly get. As any boxer with a glass chin could tell Jerome Wiesner, this is Alice in Wonderland logic with a vengeance.

The Pentagon's own reason for not pressing ahead with an anti-missile missile system is economic, for the cost of developing such "superior defense power" is put at somewhere between eight and twenty billion dollars. Between Jerome Wiesner and the cost-conscious Department of Defense, it looks as though the "two-platoon" military capability were not quite on the horizon.

The contemporary impossibility of distinguishing between "forward power" and "defense power" is illustrated by the development of the new military transport jets which can combine in an Operation Big Lift to deliver a whole division to either an offensive or a defensive front in a very few hours. In West Berlin, we have an exposed position that comes within the defensive perimeter of the free nations. When the Russians, back in 1948 and 1949, clamped their embargo on ground access to West Berlin, General Lucius Clay mobilized all the old C-54s and C-47s that he could get his hands on to bring food and fuel to his beleaguered outpost. The Berlin Airlift of the time moved a total of more than two million tons into West Berlin within a space of thirteen months. This was "defensive power." But to the Russians it just have indicated strong offensive potentiality.

Today the power that is inherent in air lift capacity, whether for offense or defense, is vastly multiplied. The Lockheed Aircraft people, who will shortly be building the new C-5A heavy jet air transport capable of ferrying 600 troops at a whack at 550-mile-an-hour speed, say that if General Lucius Clay had had their new plane back in 1948, he could have flummoxed the Russians in short order. Ten C-5As will be able to handle what it took 140 C-54s to handle in 1948.

What this will do to arm our defensive foreign policy should be a caution to Kosygin and Brezhnev if they are meditating any new monkey business in Berlin. But the C-5A itself "defensive power" or "offensive power"? Solomon himself couldn't tell the difference.

Serious Complications Rare But Shingles Are Annoying

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—How dangerous is shingles? Is it catching? Should a person stay in bed with it? What is the best treatment?

A—Shingles (herpes zoster) is a virus infection of a nerve and is manifested by a painful rash of blisters along the course of the nerve. Serious complications may occur but are rare. A very annoying, rather than serious, complication is seen rather frequently in persons who are over 60 and who have hardening of the arteries — a chronic neuritis develops in the involved nerve that may persist for months or even years after the rash has subsided.

The disease is transmitted like chicken pox and measles through close association with a person who is about to get the disease. The disease is no longer contagious three days after the rash has erupted.

Bed rest is not required. Aspirin and codeine usually control the pain. Bandaging the lesions, after applying first calamine lotion then petroleum jelly, adds greatly to the victim's comfort. Recent studies show that prednisone will abolish the pain in 3 or 4 days in contrast to 3 or 4 weeks in untreated cases. This treatment, when given early in the course of the disease, may also help to prevent the neuritis referred to.

Q—I have had shingles for 3 years. My doctor says there is nothing he can do for me. What do you think?

A—Shingles usually clears up in about 2 weeks and never lasts for more than 5 weeks. You probably have a post-shingles neuritis. Many treatments have been tried for this complication but the results are often disappointing. Cutting the nerve or injecting it with hot water may be necessary in your case.

Q—My husband is allergic to any type of medicine that contains aspirin. Can he have from this kind of allergy be fatal? What is a safe substitute for aspirin?

A—A severe allergic reaction involving the internal organs as well as the skin (hives) can be fatal in a matter of a few minutes. There are many other nonhabitforming aminopyrine, dipyrone, phenylbutazone, propoxyphene, ethoheptazine, methipholine and pentazocine.

Q—My doctor has me taking Premarin. What is it for? Is it safe to take it for a long time?

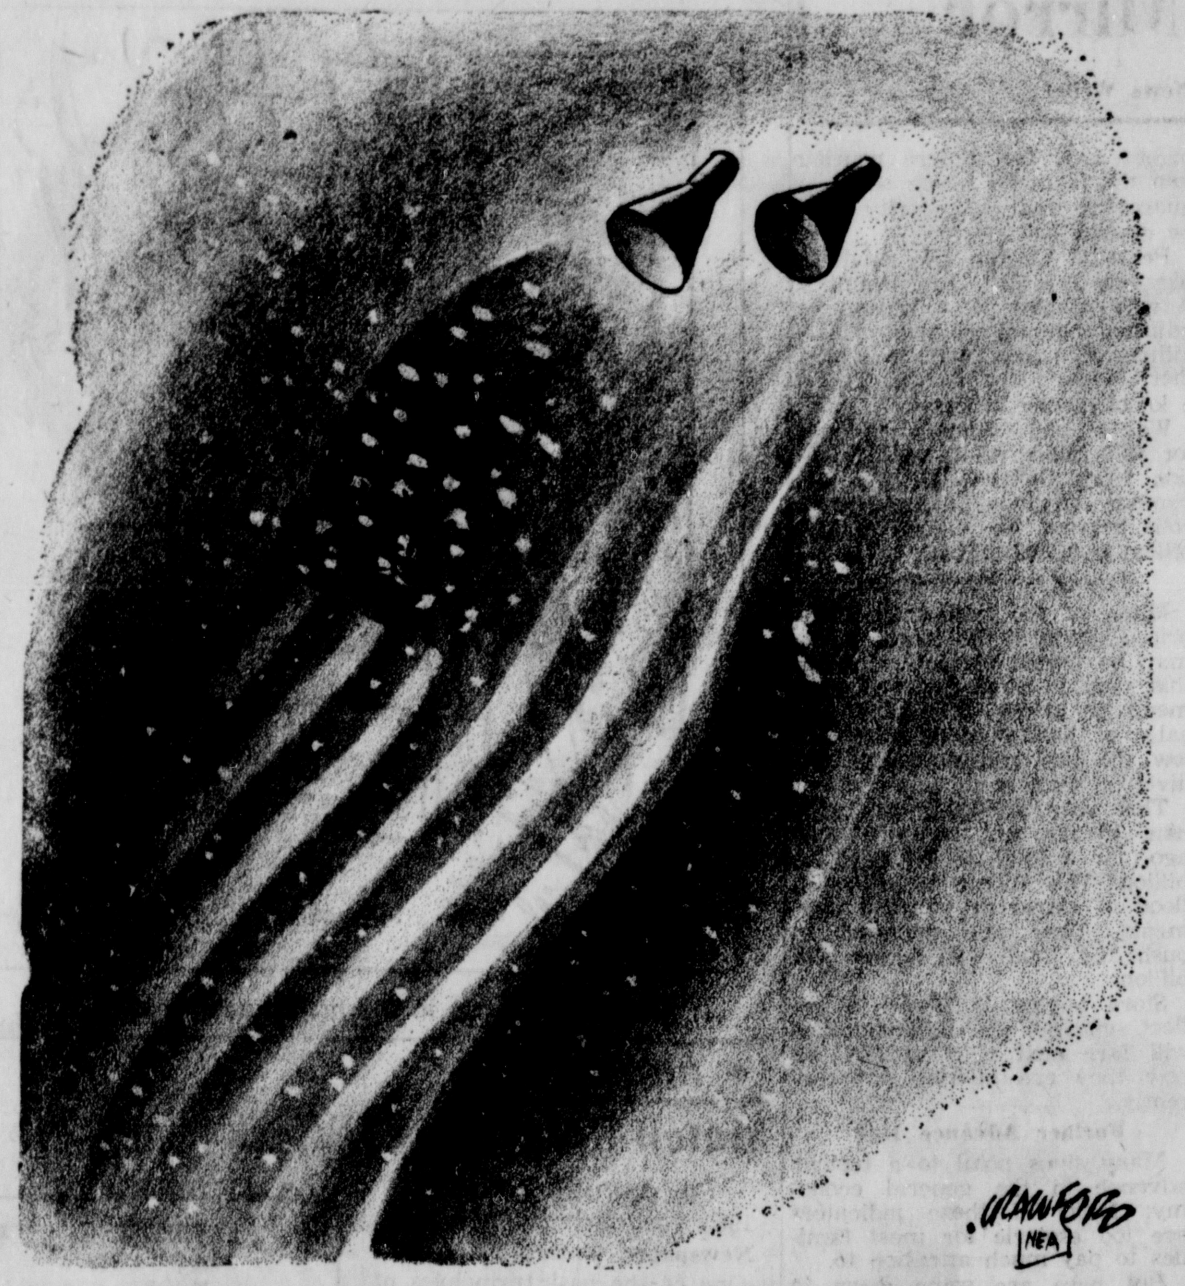

A—This female hormone is given to relieve menopausal symptoms. Since it replaces a hormone formerly present, it can be safely taken indefinitely if the proper maintenance dose you need is carefully determined.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Washington News

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — If Michigan's Gov. Romney can run up a thumping re-election victory next fall, he may find at least a few top Republicans endorsing him quietly for the 1968 GOP presidential nomination.

One leading eastern figure in the party says privately: "Assuming a good showing for him in 1966, we're going to be for George."

Republican moderates who may move Romney's way after next November recognize that gaining early initiative and momentum may be vital to their cause in the 1968 campaign.

Many of them still shudder over their disastrous performance in the 1963-64 campaign when they stood frozen in inaction while Barry Goldwater galloped off with the nomination.

Evidently Richard Nixon, the present clear choice of the conservatives, will be busier next year amassing credits for "party good works" than he was in a crowded 1963. Party leaders who do not want Nixon for 1968 face hard tasks.

The slightest sign that moderate Republicans might repeat their irresolution of 1964 could be fatal to their new hopes. That is why a substantial Romney triumph in 1966 could be followed by key endorsements for 1968 within a matter of days or weeks.

IN CASE THEY HAVE FORGOTTEN how to move, GOP moderates have before them the striking history of the Eisenhower movement in the important months leading to his presidential nomination in 1952.

On Oct. 15, 1950, 21 months before nominating time, the then Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York used the Meet the Press radio-television forum for a strong endorsement of Gen. Eisenhower.

This was the real touch-off, though a bit earlier Pennsylvania's Gov. James Duff had, with less notice, said "Ike is my man."

By late June of 1951, a top Dewey lieutenant had virtually pledged the 96-vote New York delegation to Eisenhower. (The actual convention tally for the state gave the general 92 to 4 for Robert A. Taft, his close competitor nationwide.)

ALL THROUGH THE SUMMER OF 1951, Republican governors, senators and congressmen trooped to Paris to see "Ike" in his NATO headquarters. Among them was Massachusetts' Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, who by Nov. 15 had been named national campaign manager for the general.

In September that year, Dewey and Duff held a major strategy meeting in Washington, drawing in several other top Republicans.

A few weeks later, at the annual governor's conference held in Gatlinburg, Tenn., Dewey engineered an Eisenhower endorsement by seven of the nation's 25 Republican governors.

One of the seven, Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, announced at that conference that Eisenhower's name would be tossed into the New Hampshire primary which kicked off the 1952 campaign.

Even Harold Stassen was quoted as backing "Ike," though he later denied it and lapsed into another of his own futile campaigns.

ON JAN. 6, 1952, Lodge announced formally that Eisenhower's name would be on the New Hampshire ballot in March. Next day, the general issued a statement that kept the rug under his backers.

Ten days later, at a San Francisco meeting of the GOP National Committee, Eisenhower was represented by a tough squad of professionals under Lodge's command. The game was on in full, after a long and very resolute preparatory drive which had enlisted from the outset some of the party's brightest, most influential stars.

For today's moderates, ashamed of virtually sitting the last one out, the lesson of 1950-52 is plain enough.

Planned Tax Rise Could End LBJ's Political Honeymoon

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — President Johnson's professed annoyance over the Federal Reserve Board's increase of interest rates by half a percentage point and his complaint that the board should have waited until the Federal budget was disclosed in January now begin to be understandable. For the President may have believed that the restraints on borrowing which the board's action was designed to impose could be achieved by announcing next month a plan to increase tax rates.

But, unfortunately, Congress doesn't act quickly on tax legislation, and there would have been a scramble by business men for loans at existing rates during the three or four months usually consumed in arguing about a tax measure in both houses.

It is an open secret that the Administration is contemplating a tax increase and is worried only about how to apply it—whether to make everybody bear it or to impose the heaviest burden on high-bracket incomes and on corporation profits. All sorts of proposals are being mentioned in official circles—for example, a 10 per cent increase in the total tax of an individual at present. This would be the same as increasing the rates from 14 to 15.4 per cent in the lower brackets and would move up the top bracket from 70 to 77 per cent. Corporation taxes would go up about two points to the 50 per cent mark — halfway back to where the rates were before the two Democratic administrations since 1961 began making their promises of tax reductions.

All this would be expected to bring in around $6.5 billion in tax receipts. And if necessary to obtain more revision, it is reported that some of the excise taxes on autos and telephones might be frozen, and the promised increases would then be postponed for a while.

The sad truth is that, even if the foregoing plan now being discussed were to raise $6.5 billion, it probably wouldn't be enough to wipe out the deficit, which is calculated to run between $7 billion and $8 billion in the present fiscal year.

The blame for the large deficit forthcoming is being put on the escalator of the war effort in Viet Nam, but even before this enlargement of the government's expenses began a few months ago, the Federal deficit was around $5 billion.

What it means is that tax reductions of the last two years as a method of stimulating business is not bringing in the money to wipe out deficits. No plan of tax reduction can by itself expand business receipts and yield enough receipts in taxes. There has to be, coincidentally, a curb on Federal spending, but this hasn't materialized. The Administration has kept its extravagant spending plans going and has sought to make votes by increasing expenditures for the "Great Society" on the theory that this would be politically advantageous.

Since the spending spree hasn't balanced the budget, there has to be some explanation given the people. The financial problem is, to be sure, in part due to the Viet Nam war, but last year's defense spending actually declined while appropriations for the "Great Society" increased.

Efforts will be made to try to hold the budget down as much as possible by postponing some of the proposed expenditures, but certain projects in the social-welfare field, especially in education, cannot be withdrawn in whole or in part without political embarrassment.

The Administration doubtless will come out with a projected deficit lower than has been mentioned in the press, and this will be hailed as a great achievement. When the Federal government keeps on spending $5 to $6 billion more than it takes in every year and suddenly decides it will not plan a deficit of $8 or $9 billion but will keep it down to a billion or two, this is supposed to silence all criticism and keep "prosperity" in the headlines.

The continuing deficits, however, are beginning to cause dismay abroad and to instill precautions at home in projecting private expenditures for the future, especially as inflationary developments push up the cost of borrowing money. Federal deficits are coming home to roost, and the rise in taxes which is being planned may mark the end of the political honeymoon of the Administration.

Offers Pile Up For Baby Girl

HERKIMER, N.Y. (AP) — Adoption offers piled up today at the foot of Merry Carol's incubator in Memorial Hospital here.

Spokesmen for the police, the hospital and the county welfare department told The Associated Press that each was receiving calls offering to adopt the abandoned baby girl.

The newborn infant was found here Saturday in an apartment house trashcan, wrapped in a towel and the top of a woman's nightgown.

But the adoption offers were described today as "ridiculous" by Peter Brayton, Herkimer County deputy welfare commissioner.

"In the case of abandonment," he said, "I understand we have to wait a year before we can put her out for adoption."

"Meanwhile, we're petitioning the family court here for custody and we'll put her in a foster home as soon as possible."

In Buffalo, however, another baby girl, also abandoned Saturday, was reported to have received no adoption offers.

Woman, 100, Dies

WAVERLY, N.Y. (AP)—Mrs. Mary Surton Dewey of Sayre, Pa., who was 100 years old last May 30, died Monday in Robert Packer Hospital.

Smoke Enough to Get Sick: That's the Cure

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—If you can increase your cigarette consumption to the point where it makes you ill it may be easier for you to stop smoking.

That theory is advanced by an Albany Medical College student who says that his research indicates some smokers quit because they were suffering from severe coughs or sore throats.

Robert T. Eagan, a sophomore from Bridgeport, Conn., studied 90 case histories and said many formerly heavy smokers listed "unpleasant side effects" as their reason for stopping.

Favors Doubling Liability for State Drivers

NEW YORK (AP) — A state legislative committee has recommended doubling at least the minimum amount of liability insurance motorist must carry but it is not clear whether premiums would go up.

The recommended increase will come up in a package of motor vehicle bills to be submitted to the legislature. One bill calls for auto liability insurance with a minimum of $25,000 to $50,000 coverage, while another calls for coverage of $20,000 to $40,000 liability.

The present minimum of $10,000 to $20,000 was enacted in 1951.

Sen. Simon J. Liebowitz, D-Brooklyn, chairman of the Joint Legislative Committee on Motor Vehicles, said the rising costs of auto accidents and decreased buying power of the dollar require high insurance coverage. He made Sunday in the committee's preliminary reports of its Oct. 25 public hearing. The report supports alternative insurance bills to give Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller a choice when they reach his desk.

Liebowitz predicted that if coverage were broadened to $20,000 to $40,000 and property damage kept at $5,000, it might not be necessary to increase premiums if the requirement that all motorists be insured were strictly enforced.

But Henry Root Stern Jr., state superintendent of insurance, said the change might add 5 to 6 per cent to insurance premiums. He also recommended that coverage for property damage be jumped from $5,000 to $10,000.

Liebowitz disagreed. He said that "the committee is not concerned with property damage losses. Its primary objective is to secure the maximum amount of protection for victims of automobile accidents while maintaining the lowest possible insurance premium rates."

Howe Education Head

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harold Howe II has been named the new U.S. commissioner of education.

He'll take over in January from Francis Keppel who then will be able to devote full time to his other job of assistant secretary of health, education and welfare.

President Johnson announced his selection of Howe on Saturday.

Howe, 47, has been director of the Learning Institute of North Carolina, a center for education research since May 1964.

Discovers Yule Carol Speeded Up Good for Twist

By RAYMOND E. PALMER
LONDON (AP) — Take a recording of "Good King Wenceslas" made at 33 1/3 revolutions per minute, play it at 78 rpm's and enjoy a good twist. That's just about the way it should sound, according to Miss Elizabeth Poston, a British composer and expert on medieval music.

Has Strong Views
Miss Poston has strong views on the things that have happened to carols on their way down the centuries. Especially "Wenceslas," carols, according to Miss Poston, were originally intended for dancing. They were folk songs and not necessarily religious. The medieval clergy decided that dancing in church would not do. So carols went underground. They survived precariously for hundreds of years in remote villages. Then under Victorian revivalists, carols came back — with a whimper. They took the tunes, wrote their own words and loaded down the result with church harmonies.

Dates to 13th Century
This is what happened to "Wenceslas." The tune, once a splendidly gay and virile dance measure, dates from the 13th century, Miss Poston says. The words were written in 1853 by Dr. John Mason Neale. Miss Poston, in a foreword to the "Penguin Book of Christmas Carols," describes his grafting operation as "the dreariest of travesties." She says that "Wenceslas" should be sung, in unison, nearly twice as fast as most people do these days, "with clapping, drum and plucked instruments" — which sounds like a beat group backing. "Danced as a twist with modern rhythm accompaniment it would be nearer its authentic style," Miss Poston writes. She prints her version in the book, minus harmonies but with indications for drum taps and drone bass, plus several other unconventional arrangements.

Driver Injured As Truck Leaves T-Way at Greene

The driver of a United Reel Service truck was injured and hospitalized early today when the vehicle ran off the south-bound lane of the Thruway at Mile Post 108 near the Ulster County line, went into a ditch and down an embankment, Thruway troopers reported.

Troopers identified the driver as Walter Hoepker, 39 of Lodi, N. J., who claimed he fell asleep at the wheel. He was taken to Benedictine Hospital by Saugerties Ambulance Service. Trooper J. F. Ryan, who investigated said he suffered severe lacerations of the head, lip and face. He was reported in fair condition. The mishap occurred about 1:30 a. m.

Delaware, Five Other Counties in Land-Use Plan

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller reported today that six New York counties had been selected to participate in the Appalachian region's land-conservation and erosion control program. Rockefeller said he had submitted a plan to the Appalachian Regional Commission for utilizing the $392,000 in federal funds allocated for the first year of the program in New York State.

Under terms of the program, the federal government shares with land-owners the cost of conserving and developing soil, water, forest, wildlife and recreational resources.

The six counties that will participate in the first year are Chautauque, Cattaraugus, Allegany, Chenango, Otsego and Delaware.

Rockefeller said they were chosen "on the basis of income and job opportunities and the impact expected from establishment of improved land-use practices."

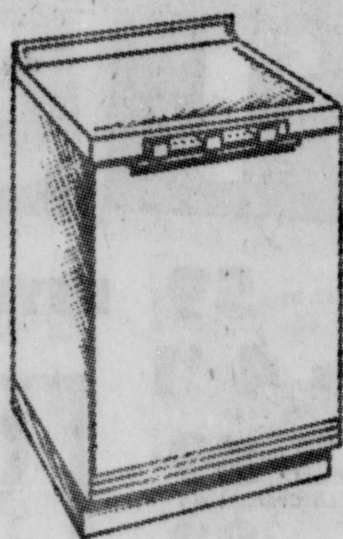

The program will be reviewed annually and other counties might be included in the future, the governor said.

Would you rather be washing dishes?

You can save yourself about 250 hours a year of dishwashing drudgery when you have an automatic dishwasher. That's 250 hours to spend the way you want to—productive hours . . . entertaining hours . . . time to be a better housewife, mother, hostess.

With the new dishwashers there's no scraping or rinsing . . . just shake off the leftovers and put the dishes in. Your kitchen things get sparkling, hospital clean and spotlessly dry—automatically! For time saving and all round convenience, you need a dishwasher.

See your local appliance dealer about a portable or built-in dishwasher for your home.

RFK Political Boxer: Rocky

NEW YORK (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has called Sen. Robert F. Kennedy a "political broker" in the latest round of an exchange that began over the weekend.

The dispute concerns state programs for the mentally retarded. Kennedy charged Monday the state is not fully utilizing available federal funds for these programs.

Rockefeller said yesterday that the Democratic senator was using the state mental health program for "personal publicity."

He made the remark to newsmen as he visited Creedmoor State Hospital in Queens to light a Christmas tree.

The governor said the state is using all the federal funds that fit into its master plan for mental health. He said that plan was used by President John F. Kennedy as a guide for his federal attack on mental illness.

The latest controversy between the governor and the senator began Friday when Rockefeller disclosed a 17-page telegram Kennedy had sent him about the mental health program. Kennedy said the disclosure of his telegram was "wrong and tasteless."

Rockefeller repeated Monday his assertion that Kennedy was seeking personal publicity by having mental health funds funneled through his office.

"He is abusing his senatorial position," the governor said.

Dear Abby . . .

Permission Granted!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: May I have your consent to name my lovely thoroughbred filly "Dear Abby"? I plan to show her as a conformation hunter. Sincerely,

AN ABBY FAN

DEAR FAN: Be my guest. I have had children, dogs, cats, birds, skunks, turtles and even a queen bee named after me, so why not a filly? I warn you, I am pushing 48, so don't expect too much of me on the jumps.

DEAR ABBY: We live at the air crossroads of the world, and hardly a week passes without a call from someone who's at the airport with "regards" from a mutual friend or a relative. These travelers have anywhere from a few hours to an entire evening to kill. This means we must drive out to the airport and entertain them. If it's around dinner time (and it usually is) I either have to ask them to my home for dinner, a courtesy I am not always prepared to extend on a moment's notice, or we must take them out. We aren't poor, but we don't enjoy wining and dining the cousins, uncles and grandmothers of some casual acquaintance we haven't seen in years and may never see again. Some guests DO offer to pick up the check, but how are we to know if we can better afford to treat them than they us? What is our obligation to these people?

INTERNATIONAL HOSTS

DEAR HOSTS: It depends entirely on the circumstances. If the caller bears regards from a dear friend or relative, and you WANT to entertain him, then entertain him as best you can in the time allowed. But you have no obligation to "wine and dine" the shorttail relatives of every casual acquaintance who dials your number. Tell them you regret that you are unable to see them on such short notice. And don't feel guilty.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 17-year-old senior girl with a question. I have always heard that no girl is so popular that she can refuse a boy when he asks her to dance. There is this boy at school who has asked me out, but I have never accepted because I don't care for him, but whenever he sees me at a dance he always asks me to dance. Abby, I am not stuck-up, but I can't stand this boy. I hate to hurt his feelings, but I can't seem to get rid of him. How can I get out of dancing with him? If I say I have a sore foot or something and he sees me dancing with somebody else later, he'll know I lied. Help!

CAN'T STAND HIM

DEAR CAN'T: Sorry, honey, but one of the penalties of popularity is attention from those who like you more than you like them. What's one dance more or less? You can't turn anyone down without getting the reputation of being a snob.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WILLIE OUT WEST: Be careful with whom you "kill time"—or you'll be doing some. The girl is under age, and the "entertainment" is out of bounds.

Problems? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., for Abby's booklet, "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

Many Factors Are Evident In LBJ's Anxiety for Peace

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has a number of reasons, besides what it would mean in lives saved, for working out an agreement with North Viet Nam to talk about a peace settlement.

No president in this century matched him in the amount of important legislation he got through Congress in this one year. But he probably faces a stormy time with Congress next year if the war continues.

Election Year

In addition, 1966 is a congressional election year when the Republicans will try to make issues of anything they can latch onto. The war would be No. 1.

Since Johnson is an active, driving, imaginative man, and a very dramatic one, it would not be surprising if sometime fairly soon he announced some kind of progress toward talks with the North Vietnamese.

Such an announcement, if made before Christmas, would be doubly sensational, although there has been no indication anything of the kind is in store. But Johnson never rests when caught in a dilemma and he has never been caught in one like this.

Working Hard

So it can be assumed he has been working hard while bombing North Viet Nam to make his efforts more convincing, at establishing contact direct or otherwise with North Viet Nam's president, Ho Chi Minh.

Because Johnson is a vigorous man who tries to anticipate and shape events himself, instead of negatively letting chance control the future, what happened recently seems a little odd.

In the past few weeks two Italian professors who visited North Viet Nam returned with word of a peace feeler after talking with Ho Chi Minh. The word got to Johnson in around-about way. The whole thing got mixed up.

The public got its first news of this through a story leaked to a newspaper, which was before the State Department acknowledged anything about the professors' efforts.

Not Enthusiastic

Its response was far from hearty. It was full of reservations. As the story developed U.S. planes bombed a power plant in North Viet Nam near Haiphong. The Hanoi radio called the whole business "pure fabrication."

This seemed to end it. But the bombing of the power plant could be taken as a Johnsonian nudge to the Communists that worse was to come unless they began to show some willingness to discuss peace.

This hasn't visibly impressed them yet. But Johnson, besides his obligation as President to do his utmost to obtain peace, has an inner drive to succeed.

He knows it would be considered a tremendous achievement, here and abroad, if he could get peace talks going.

Aldrich Charged With Arrogance

A charge of "arrogance" and "attempt to slam the door in the face of 40,000 Dutchess County voters" was leveled today against Alexander Aldrich, first cousin and executive assistant to Governor Rockefeller, by Lionel S. Frank of Fishkill.

The charge of "arrogance" was made by Mr. Frank against the Governor's cousin in his bid for the Republican nomination from the 28th Congressional District, following a news release from the Aldrich camp that appeared in the Friday, December 17, issue of the Kingston Daily Freeman, describing Aldrich as "the Republican candidate who will definitely oppose incumbent Democratic Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick of Ellenville in the 1966 election."

"That such a flat statement on who will or who will not definitely oppose Congressman Resnick can be interpreted from the backing of four county leaders is surprising, and I feel somewhat arrogant," Mr. Frank said.

"To attempt to slam the door on 40,000 Dutchess County voters in this way, particularly after the Dutchess County executive committee, representing the largest county in the 28th Congressional District, has unanimously voted to back a Dutchess County man will, I feel, be resented," Mr. Frank said.

"I feel Mr. Aldrich or his writer should allow some time for consideration by the commit-attempt is made to present him as the man who will definitely be the Republican candidate, Mr. Frank's statement concluded.

Mr. Frank is with Frank and Bolton Insurance Co. of Beacon, N. Y., and is head of the Southern Development Corporation.

Eight Are Cited In Intimidation Suit of Negroes

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The nation's first voter intimidation suit filed under the 1965 Voting Rights Act accuses a Louisiana registrar and seven landowners of forcing Negro sharecroppers from their life-long homes.

Louisiana Atty. Gen. Jack P. F. Gremillion said he will not defend the registrar, Fletcher Harvey, named in the federal court suit Monday.

"I'm not responsible for the predicament that he is in," said Gremillion. "He caused it of his own accord."

When told of his states legal attitude, Harvey replied, "I don't want to know what he says."

Harvey, six landowners and one farming company were charged with forcing from their homes Negro tenant farmers who registered to vote.

U.S. Dist. Judge E. Gordon West has scheduled a hearing on the matter in Baton Rouge on Thursday.

Hope Launches Tour

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Bob Hope and his troupe of entertainers flew to Udon, in northeast Thailand, today to launch the comedian's 14th annual Christmas tour for U.S. troops overseas.

After a brief return to Bangkok, the troupe was to fly to Takli air base, 280 miles north of Bangkok, to entertain another group of American servicemen.

The group, which includes actress Carol Baker, bandleader Les Brown, singer Anita Bryant and beauty queen Diane Lynn Batts, arrived Sunday night.

Hope takes his troupe to South Viet Nam on Christmas Eve.

Phyllis, Mate Split

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedienne Phyllis Diller has separated from her husband of less than three months, a spokesman announced.

The spokesman said entertainer Wardé Donovan moved out of the couple's West Los Angeles home last week. Miss Diller and her four children by a previous marriage will continue to live there.

No reason was given for the separation. Miss Diller divorced Sherwood Diller in St. Louis last September, ending their 25-year marriage. She married Donovan Oct. 7.

Yule Seal Month Is Proclaimed; Ask Full Support

Christmas Seal Time in Ulster County was formally and officially designated by proclamation by Robert F. Phinney, chairman of the Board of Supervisors. In so doing, Ulster County citizens were urged to give their continued generous support to the annual Christmas Seal campaign now in its 59th year as one of the countries leading voluntary health forces.

The proclamation further directed that to signify this Ulster County Christmas Seal Proclamation, the red and white Christmas Seal banner bearing the traditional double-barred cross will be flown beneath the United States flag on the official county flag pole situated at the Ulster County Court House, Wall Street, until December 31.

Banner To Fly

The Christmas Seal banner flying on Wall Street serves to remind all concerned Ulster County citizens that their TB Association has provided dedicated, highly effective program for 56 years, "and continues this work with continued citizen awareness and support," said John M. Robbins, Saugerties banker and Fred H. DuBois, county treasurer, co-chairmen of the 1965 Ulster County Christmas seal campaign.

"Christmas Seals made possible the continuing program toward the elimination of TB, which in its terrible contagiousness, has recently proved its recurring strength by the now well-known outbreak on the Carrier Wasp," they noted.

"The recent Respiratory Disease Survey-Breathing Test Study also was provided here, and its local organization and coordination made possible by Ulster County Christmas Seal funds," they pointed out. "This Epidemiological Study is another example of Christmas Seal program hard at work."

Top Calibre Work

"The banner proudly flies on Wall Street to remind everyone of us that our personal concern and support is the sole foundation upon which rests this top-calibre health work."

Dr. Herbert F. Schwartz, TB and Health Association's president, pointed out that TB is a contagious disease far from inactive as many people falsely believe, and that Christmas Seal help find ways to prevent it from spreading.

"Even now, the cost of TB to the American people is estimated at 700 million dollars a year," he noted. "Furthermore, people suffering from acute Respiratory Disease take up more of our doctor's time than patients with any other kind of acute illness, and here too, Christmas Seal program is geared to research, treatment and control of these alarmingly increasing Respiratory problems."

Aldrich Cautions Against Another Property Tax Rise

Real estate taxes cannot be permitted to go higher if we are to have a continued good economic climate in the Mid-Hudson Valley, according to Alexander Aldrich, executive assistant to Gov. Rockefeller.

Speaking at a dinner of the Dutchess County Board of Realtors in Poughkeepsie Monday night, Aldrich also commented on the beneficial effect the state sales tax is having on the real property tax rate. He called attention to reports in the local press telling of tax rate decreases in the cities and towns of Dutchess County, attributed a good portion of the property tax rate downward trend to sharp increases in state aid resulting from the sales tax.

Aldrich, who lives and owns property in Columbia County, told the Dutchess County realtors that this state sales tax financed state aid shows up as an increase of the effective buying income. This means, he explained, that the potential home buyer now will have the ability to purchase better housing due to the additional spendable income he may draw upon from decreased property taxes. For every six dollars additional spendable monthly income, Aldrich pointed out, the potential home buyer may purchase one thousand dollars of better house.

Aldrich told the 300 Dutchess County realtors gathered to honor Manley L. Behrens as New York State Realtor of the Year that there should be a greater rapport between realtors and the officials of city, county, and state government. Few people are better informed about local conditions involving water and sewer districts, road construction, and a host of other pressing problems than the local realtor, and closer contact between realtors and government legislators and administrators must lead to more efficient government, he said.

Aldrich pointed out that the key to continued prosperity is cooperation between qualified people in solving problems at the local level whenever possible. We need qualified people in government—and we need people in government who recognize the value of utilizing the knowledge and experience of qualified local citizens, he said.

Cars Collide

Cars operated by John Bordenhagen, 73, Route 1, Box 164, Quarryville, and Elsie C. Westphal, 39, of River Edge, N. J., were involved in a collision at 2 p. m. Saturday at Market Street and Ulster Avenue, Saugerties, according to village police.

Deliver Toys to Kin Of Holocaust Victims

KEOKUK, Iowa (AP) — Two Michigan men brought a truckload of toys to Keokuk Monday for children of victims who were burned in a Thanksgiving eve explosion and fire that destroyed the National Guard Armory here.

The death toll stood at 21 Monday when two more of the critically injured died in Keokuk hospitals.

Gary Glazier and Laverne Lietzke of St. John, Mich., drove here with toys from a Lansing, Mich., toy manufacturer and $50 donated for the Swing-Ezy Disaster Benefit Fund. The money donation was arranged by Dick Kenyon, a square-dance caller from Lansing.

The explosion occurred while members of the Swing-Ezy Club were holding a square dance.

LEGENDS OF CHRISTMAS

On Christmas Day, Peter's mother was well again, putting on her scarf and feeling very happy.

Peter himself was happy because his father was coming home!

He polished his Sunday boots, for he and his mother, and he hoped his father, too, would attend church.

Centerville Fire company in command of Chief Frank Ward responded to an alarm at 2:52 p. m. Sunday for a fire in a house on the property of the Pine Grove Camp and School. Chief Ward said the fire originated near the fireplace and burned up through the walls damaging the siding. At 4:05 p. m. Sunday, Wawarsing firemen were dispatched to the Wawarsing Inn where an overheated compressor caused smoke.

Olive Bridge firemen were recalled out at 11:43 a. m. today to quell a chimney fire, a dispatcher at the Fire Control Center reported. The recall was at 12:28 p. m.

Says Bankruptcy Faces N. Y.'s Largest Cities

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The legislature has been asked to help find a "new approach" to the financial troubles of the state's core cities.

Mayor-elect Frank A. Sedita, appealing for more state aid, said Buffalo and other large cities are threatened with bankruptcy.

Sedita spoke to Democratic state party leaders Monday at a hearing on legislative proposals.

He suggested direct grants in aid or long-term, interest-free loans to the cities to help meet the difference between revenues and expenditures.

The problems faced by the cities, he said, included loss of county sales tax revenues, declining assessment rolls and the task of providing services to a metropolitan community which extends far beyond the city limits.

"Unless special attention is immediately forthcoming," Sedita declared, "the core cities such as Buffalo face bankruptcy."

If this is permitted to happen, he added, the state "had better be ready to move in and take over all of the responsibility of municipal services in those cities."

Sedita said Buffalo lost $1.7 million this year when the county sales tax dropped from 3 to 2 per cent with enactment of the 2 per cent state sales tax.

He said 30 per cent of the city's land is now exempt from real estate taxes. This included property taken for highways and governmental and cultural facilities.

Urban renewal projects also have been accompanied by tax revenue losses, he said. During the time lag between acquisition by the city of the land and its subsequent development by private developers, there is virtually no tax revenue on the land.

"Even after the renewal project is completed, however, experience has shown that it is often necessary to grant substantial tax concessions to the developers so that housing costs within the renewal area can be kept within the reach of low and middle-income families," Sedita said.

City taxpayers have been forced to bear the burden of a shrinkage in the tax base which resulted from development of the highways and other public facilities to serve the metropolitan area, the mayor-elect said.

He said Buffalo cannot qualify under most state and federal aid programs because most of the assistance is granted on a matching - fund basis or otherwise geared to low spending.

Warns Expenses of Politics Can Tempt Interests

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Industrialist Howard J. Samuels of Canandaigua warned today that growing problems of financing political campaigns tempted "moved and special interests with thoughts of buying their way into public office."

He said there was an "increasing danger of nominations becoming the rich man's private preserve" and urged Democratic members of the legislature to pioneer in providing a legislative solution.

Talks at Hearing

Samuels, an unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic Party's gubernatorial nomination in 1962, commented at the second of three public hearings being conducted by the Democratic State Committee.

The committee is seeking proposals for the 1966 session of the legislature. The hearings move to Schenectady Wednesday.

Samuels said present methods of campaign financing were "woefully inadequate" and warned of what he called "the sinister and evil intrusion of money as a vital element in the American political picture."

"I believe the American people will be ready and willing to support any reasonable proposals designed to maintain the American system as we know it," he said.

Suggests Action

In his prepared remarks, he suggested four areas of legislative action that would:

-Place limits on campaign expenditures.
-Provide government subsidies for certain campaign materials, such as biographies of candidates.

-Develop a means of subsidizing campaign use of radio and television.

-Provide a system of tax credits to encourage greater citizen participation in political contributions.

$80,000 Buffalo Fire

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A fire caused $80,000 damage to a three-story brick furniture warehouse on the city's east side Monday afternoon, firemen said.

Deputy Fire Commissioner Richard W. Price said the cause of the fire was not known. The building, at 716-720 William St., was leased to the Potts Furniture Co.

Tonawanda Plant Sold

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Buffalo Pipe & Foundry Co. of the nearby Town of Tonawanda, manufacturer of cast-iron soil pipe and fittings, has been purchased by Central Foundry Co. of New York.

The announcement Monday did not disclose the purchase price. Buffalo Pipe & Foundry Co. has 400 employees.

Lifeline of Arid Southwest

Hoover Dam Marks 30th Anniversary

By JOHN LENGEL

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — In a time when aerospace activities dominate, automation is a problem, and plastic clothes a possibility, Hoover Dam seems like pretty tame stuff.

But the dam is one of man's greater achievements and this year marks its 30th anniversary of bringing order to the rambling Colorado River, maker of the Grand Canyon and lifeline of the desert Southwest.

No More Floods

Until Hoover Dam, the 1,400-mile long river flowed through seven states, sometimes barely, other times causing floods such as in 1905 when the river sunk the entire, rich Imperial Valley of Southern California.

Now the dam's reservoir, Lake Mead, holds two year's river flow. Colorado water irrigates most southwestern crops and its energy lights millions of homes. And, the Bureau of Reclamation says, the Colorado will flood no more.

The problem of making the Colorado respond to rain for the first time was fantastic. The solution, the dam, ranks as one of the seven engineering wonders of America, according to the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Basically, the builders — six giant Western construction companies — hacked three miles of diversion tunnels through the steep, solid-rock sides of Boulder Canyon, built one earthen dam to divert the waters into the tunnels around the dam site, built another dam to stop the water from backing up, then built Hoover itself.

Uncommon Logistics

Some uncommon logistics were involved. Some 5,000 depression-era workers were hired and brought through Las Vegas. Boulder City was built near the dam to house them. A railroad and highway were built as were two concrete-making plants, a gravel-screening plant, an aerial tramway between the canyon walls, and power lines strung from San Bernardino, Calif., 200 miles away.

Heads Pershing College

BEATRICE, Neb. (AP) — Dr. Virgil B. McCain Jr., 54, president of Athens (Ala.) College, has been named president of the new Pershing College here. The four-year liberal arts school is scheduled to open to its first freshman class next fall.

When all was done, the then-highest dam in the world stood 60 stories high, 660-feet thick at the base, 45 at the crest, holding back Lake Mead which could cover all New York State with water one foot deep.

Hoover was the first of many great dams along the Colorado and forerunner of higher dams in Switzerland, Rhodesia and India.

Finished in Two Years

The dam itself was finished in two years — two years ahead of schedule — at a cost of $48 million.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt dedicated the dam in May of 1935, opening new vistas for an area sometimes called the American Sahara.

Called Hoover Dam when construction was started in 1923, Roosevelt dedicated it in 1935 as "Boulder Dam" and that name continued until April 1947 when President Harry S. Truman made it Hoover Dam.

And the dam refutes Army Lt. J. C. Ives, sent to look over the river by the War Department in 1858. Ives looked at this part of a young nation's winnings in the Mexican War and observed in his report:

"The region is, of course, altogether valueless."

"Ours is the first, and will doubtless be the last, party of whites to visit this profitless locality."

Christmas Eve in the Suburbs

Grandma Gives Her Version Of Those Office Shindigs

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — It was Christmas eve in the suburbs. "Tell us a story, Gramps," asked one of the little tots. "Naw, I told you one last night," said Gramps. "Get your grandmother to tell you one."

"Okay," said one of the tots. "Grandma, you tell us a story." "Well, all right," said Grandma. "Would you like to hear an old-fashioned Christmas story?" "Oh, yes, Goody goody!" "Well, I'll tell you how they used to celebrate at the office in the old days before your grandfather retired," said Grandma. "Somebody put gin in the water cooler early in the morning of Christmas Eve, but the party usually didn't get going until they all came back after a three-hour lunch."

"Then, I'll tell you, it sometimes got quite lively."

"The men gathered around the office Christmas tree and sang carols. Then they sang old war songs, and started drinking out of bottles."

"After that, somebody hunt up a bit of mistletoe, and then all the office wolves began chasing all the pretty girls around the room."

"How did wolves get invited to the party, Grandma?" asked one of the tots.

"Oh, all the officials had wolves in those days, didn't they?" replied Grandma, looking at Gramps. Gramps cleared his throat and looked the other way.

"By quitting time," continued Grandma, "nobody wanted to leave. Some men were leaning out the window whistling at girls on the street below. Others were telling the boss to go fly a kite. And still others were leaping from desk to desk like goats."

"Didn't they ever fall and hurt themselves?" inquired one of the tots.

Well, your Gramps fell one year and didn't get off his crutches until Easter. That's not true!" broke in Grandpa. I marched in the St. Pats Day parade that year."

Thought Tree Mugging

In any case, resumed Grandma, many of the men didn't get home until after Santa Claus had come and gone. I remember one year when you didn't arrive until 3 a.m., and then you attacked our Christmas tree. You thought it was a mugger."

"When I came downstairs you had it on the floor and were trying to choke it. Remember?"

"I tripped on the rug, and just happened to knock the tree down," said Grandpa lamely.

"Those old-fashioned Christmas parties don't sound like fun, Grandma," said one of the tots. "They sound awful. They have office parties like that anymore?"

"Well, not so many since Grandpa retired," answered Grandma.

After Grandma and Grandpa had tucked them into bed, kissed them and left, one of the tots said:

Do you think that was a true story Grandma told us?"

I don't know," said the other tot. That's the trouble with grownups — you never know when to believe them."

Active dry yeast should be dissolved in water that feels comfortably warm when a little of the water is dropped on the wrist.

Hawaiian Stops Bullet During Saigon Action

(Editor's note—The writer of this dispatch, a Hawaiian, joined The Associated Press photographic staff in Viet Nam six weeks ago after serving for 21 years as a combat photographer for the U.S. Army. Today a Communist bullet hit him in the head.)

By AL CHANG
COURTENAY, Viet Nam (AP) — I had often taken pictures of Americans, Koreans and Vietnamese wounded in my 21 years as a combat photographer for the U.S. Army. But I had never been hit myself. Today, ironically as a civilian photographer in the thick jungle beside the Courtenay rubber plantation 40 miles east of Saigon, I got it. I felt that a hammer had been smashed into my head.

I was there with a U.S. paratrooper company from the 173rd Airborne Brigade that had moved into the jungle to assist a paratrooper platoon trapped by a force of Viet Cong.

As we pressed deeper into the jungle, we could hear the thud of the enemy 50-caliber slugs ripping through the jungle and the crack of the automatic weapons.

The beleaguered platoon had called in artillery fire right on to its outer perimeter, according to the acting platoon commander, Sgt. Gilbert Parker, from Auburndale, Fla., who took over when his leader was killed.

This was the firing we heard when we got near, and suddenly it enveloped us from all sides. The Viet Cong, hiding in trees and in the thick jungle, were trying to surround us.

I lay flat on the soft ground, my chin pressed into the dirt behind a tree. A paratrooper called across to me, "Hey, Al, those tracers are going right past your head."

Take Shirra, Stafford Into Musicians Local

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—For their rendition of "Jingle Bells" from outer space, astronauts Walter M. Shirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford have been made honorary members of the American Federation of Musicians.

Three officials of the federation's Boise local took the astronauts after listening to the astronauts perform last week. International officers at Newark, N.J., agreed and forwarded honorary membership cards and scrolls of recognition which were sent on to the Houston local for the astronauts.

Lady Bird Observes 53rd Birthday Today

By FRANCES LEWINE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson family pauses Wednesday in the midst of Christmas preparations to observe the First Lady's 53rd birthday.

Born Claudia Alta Taylor on Dec. 22, 1912, in the little town of Karnack in East Texas, she never uses the formal name her parents gave her. She's known now throughout the world by the name of Lady Bird, given her by a childhood nursemaid.

There's no formal party planned for Mrs. Johnson. As usual, the family will give her personal gifts, not usually disclosed to the public.

At 53 Mrs. Johnson is 5 feet 4, and still maintains a trim size 10 figure.

As First Lady, she presides at numerous White House social events and now devotes considerable time to the beautifying of the nation's capital and a campaign to make American more beautiful.

Last month, President and Mrs. Johnson observed their 31st wedding anniversary. The date — Nov. 17 — coincided with a formal White House dinner for Britain's visiting Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon. President Johnson, in a champagne after-dinner toast, proclaimed he was married to "the most wonderful woman in the world."

Their partnership in marriage and in politics is well-known. The President frequently tells how his wife loaned him money to get started in politics, campaigns for him, and backs him at every turn.

In the President's most recent personal crisis — his gall bladder operation — Mrs. Johnson moved into the hospital.

Johnson's recuperation period at the LBJ Ranch in Texas gave his wife her first long rest and respite from public duties this year.

Until then, she had traveled almost 14,000 miles and made 33 speeches in behalf of beautification projects and some anti-poverty causes.

Her press secretary, Elizabeth Carpenter, said Mrs. Johnson reported the two months at the ranch had given her "a wonderful respite with her family — to walk, think, talk with her husband, and to read."

Karen McKeon Wears Mother's Wedding Gown for Own Ceremony in Saugerties

Karen Theresa McKeon, daughter of Mrs. George T. McKeon of 11 Peach Lane, Saugerties, and the late George T. McKeon, exchanged marriage vows with William Stark Mohn Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Mohn of Temple Terrace, Fla., on December 11, 1965.

For the double ring wedding ceremony which took place in St. Mary of the Snow in Saugerties, the bride chose to wear her mother's wedding gown. It was egg shell white satin styled with pearl applique neck line, long tapered sleeves, full bias skirt which terminated in a wide cathedral length train. Her full length veil of French silk illusion was held by tiny white flowers and tulle leaves. She carried a cascading bouquet of white orchids, carnations and English ivy.

Officiating clergyman for the occasion was the Rev. Joseph F. Hamilton, assistant pastor. Mrs. Charles Dickman was the organist.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Eileen Conroy of White Plains, N. Y. She wore a floor length gown of green velvet with white fur and a green silk illusion veil. She carried a white fur muff trimmed with holly.

Miss Gerri E. McKeon was an attendant for her sister, along with Miss Virginia Lippincott of Elmhurst, N. Y. The bridesmaids wore gowns and headpieces identical to that worn by the maid of honor except in red and white. They also carried white fur muffs trimmed with holly.

The bride's cousin, Miss Jaemi P. Bedell of Oceanside, L. I., served as flower girl in a full length gown of green brocade trimmed with white. Her headpiece was a circlet of white fur and she carried a basket of holly and red carnations.

Stanley Duntun of Watertown, Mass., classmate of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushering were Michael McKeon of Saugerties, the bride's brother and Thomas Leahy of the Bronx, N. Y.

A reception for approximately 65 guests was given at Anton's in Saugerties, N. Y.

The bride is a graduate of Academy of St. Ursula and Katharine Gibbs Business School, Montclair, N. Y. Her husband received his Masters in engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and is employed as a technical engineer by IBM in Raleigh, N. C. He is studying for his doctorate at the University of North Carolina and is a member of three honorary fraternities.

When Mr. and Mrs. Mohn return from a wedding trip to Bermuda, they will be at home at 5429 Penwood Drive, Raleigh, N. C.

Holiday Open House Calls for Refreshments

ATTRACTIVE TRAY FOR HOLIDAYS

The holiday season is party-giving time. It is a joyous occasion which generates conviviality and celebrates the coming of the new year. It is the time friends get together to renew old acquaintances and make new ones.

A wise hostess knows that the secret to a good party lies in her ability to have refreshments prepared well ahead of time, so she is free to mingle with her holiday guests.

An hors d'oeuvre tray, made in advance, is an easy and convenient way to appease friends' appetites. Arrange crisp party rye slices on tray—they're most appropriate for bite-size holiday treats. Spread each slice with softened butter or mayonnaise, then garnish with a variety of toppings. Here are several suggestions:

Lettuce, hard-cooked slices of egg, caviar; Cream cheese sliced tongue, dill spears; Deviled ham, chutney, onion rings, dill pickle; Lettuce, shrimp, caviar; Cream cheese cucumber and radish slices; Lettuce, anchovies, dill spear; Hard-cooked egg, pimiento; Lettuce, cream cheese, apple slices; Lettuce, hard-cooked egg slices stuffed olive slices.

Cover tray with plastic wrap and refrigerate. At serving time remove covering and place a bowl of crackers in center of tray.

Phone Cable Stolen

PARSONS, Kan. (AP)—Thieves stole three miles of copper wire from the Katy Railroad Monday—right off telephone poles along the right-of-way.

The theft, a mile north of Parsons, was discovered when engine crews complained that signals transmitted by wire were not functioning.

EXCHANGE OF WEDDING GIFTS IS A TIME-HONORED CUSTOM

Some people think it discourteous if the bride "harnesses" the present chosen for her. But it has been a time-honored custom to permit a bride to exchange all duplicate presents, and no friends should allow their feelings to be hurt unless they have chosen the present with a particular sentiment. A bride never changes the presents chosen for her by her own family or by the bridegroom's family, unless especially told that she may do so. But to keep 22 saltcellars and 16 silver trays when she has no coffee spoons or vegetable dishes would be putting sentiment above sense.

Writing Return Address on Envelope

Q: A friend and I have been discussing the use of Miss and Mrs. in connection with a return address. She adheres to the rule that one should never prefix her (or his) name with a title. Although I realize this is not done when signing one's name, I think it is entirely correct to use a title when writing a return address. Will you please tell me who is right?

A: You are right. You never sign your name with a title, but when writing a return address on an envelope, it is correct to prefix a title to your name.

Inviting Boy From a Distance

Q: I would like to invite a boy from out of town to a dance. He will be unable to return home that same evening. Will I be expected to provide sleeping accommodations for him or does he look after this himself?

A: If you can accommodate him at your parents' house, you should do so. If lack of space does not permit this, you should explain when inviting him that he will have to stay at a motel and offer to reserve a room for him. If your parents can afford it, it would be proper as well as generous of them to pay his hotel room. If not, he pays for it himself.

(A Bell - McClude Syndicate Feature)

STING RAYS, dance combo, will play for the Christmas dance planned Monday, Dec. 27, by the Ulster Pomona Youth. The event will be held at the Port Ewen Town Hall with dancing from 7:30 to 11:30 p. m. Tickets will be available at the door or by contacting Linda Winslow of Ulster Park or John Schatzel, 132 Tremper Avenue. Refreshments will be available.

GOP Women Will Hear Aldrich at January Meeting

The Ulster County Women's Republican Club held its business meeting and Christmas party on Thursday, Dec. 16, 1965. Members of the Golden Age Club were guests. The meeting opened with the National Anthem sung by Mrs. June Vanderzee.

Mrs. Augustus Parker, who had been a guest at the Inter-County luncheon held at the Chateau Kaal Rock in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. on Dec. 2, read a letter received by Carl Spad: Re: "Women in Politics."

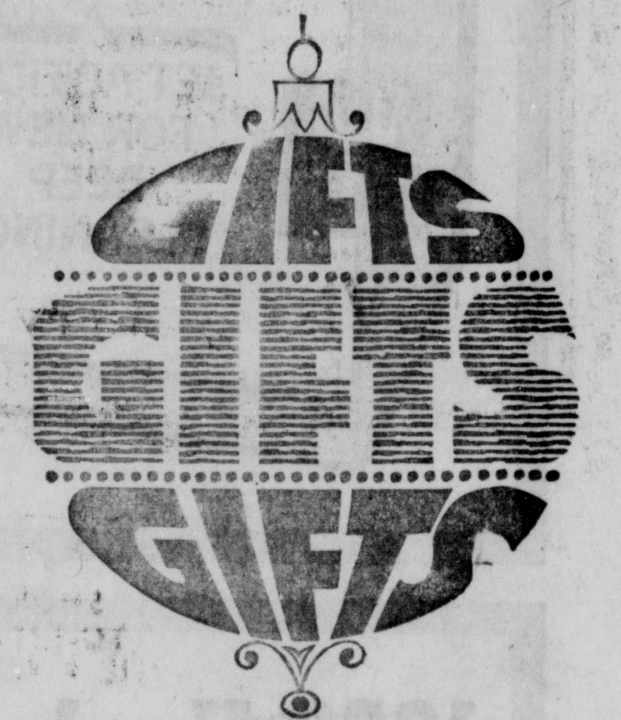

Entertainment for the evening included music played by John Bott; singing, Miss Cordelia Feltman; Mrs. Lucille Ingarr, Mrs. Warren Mann and guests. A little dance with an original twist. Also on the program were Mrs. Hilda Krum, president, niece and nephew Ernie and Bes Gilyardi, who performed duets with guitar accompaniment.

December 26th

On the day after Christmas,
And not at all strange,
Are the crowds flocking in
With their gifts to exchange

Their socks are too large;
Their ties are too bright;
Their slippers are wrong;
Their shirts aren't right.

They have too many pencils;
Their books they have read,
Or have two of a kind
And wish something instead.

Now, if you are anxious
And eager to learn
How to give and be sure
Your gifts won't return...

For what it is worth—
The suggestion is mine,
—Nobody brings back
My liquors or wine.

Donna R. Millett, John F. Fiore Wed; Ceremony Takes Place in St. Mary's

On December 11, 1965, a 2 o'clock wedding ceremony took place in St. Mary's Church, Kingston, uniting in marriage two local residents. They are Donna R. Millett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Millett of 14 Grant Street, and John F. Fiore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fiore of 22 Hanratty Street.

Officiating clergyman for the double ring wedding ceremony was the Rev. Edward I. Farrelly, assistant pastor. Theodore Riccobono was organist for the occasion and Mrs. Nadine Woinoski was soloist. White gladioli decorated the church for the occasion and the pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white silk-faced satin with Sabrina neckline and A-line shift skirt in floor length. The train of the gown was chapel length. Alencon lace and pearls trimmed the bodice. A veil of silk illusion was shirred to a satin pillbox trimmed with a pearl band. She carried a white missal with white roses and showers.

Cherie DeCicco of 22 Van Gaa-back Street, Kingston, was the matron of honor in a ruby velvet gown styled along A-lines. She carried a nosegay of pink carnations. Bridesmaids were Dale Eisele of 96 Greenhill Avenue and Connie Baroncelli of 147 Downs Street. Their gowns were identical to that worn by the honor attendant except in emerald green. They carried nosegays of Nile green carnations.

Vincent J. Mitchell of Baileys Crossroads, Va., served as best man. Ushering were Arthur Fiore Jr., brother of the bridegroom, and John Smith of Lake Katrine.

A reception was given in The Capri 400, Port Ewen for 135 guests. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Fiore left on a wedding trip to New York City. When they return they will reside at 56 Brewster Street, this city.

Both are graduates of Kingston High School. Mrs. Fiore is employed by IBM in Kingston and her husband, who served four years with the U. S. Air Force, is employed by Central Hudson Gas and Electric Company in this city.

Money to Make Money

LONDON (AP)—A spokesman for Britain's royal mint said today it cannot make enough money because the government lacks money.

Operating at full capacity turning out coins, the mint needs to expand its plant. But plans to build a $2.8-million addition to the mint on Tower Hill have been shelved. A spokesman explained:

"The plan has had to be postponed indefinitely because of the country's economic difficulties. There's also the suggestion that Britain may go over to the decimal system. If that happened it could cause a lot of trouble."

And Members Covet 'Delivery Boy' Job

Elmira Group Raises $20,000 Each Year for Gifts to Needy Children

By TOM PAGE
Elmira Star-Gazette & Advertiser

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP)—To get Christmas gifts into the hands of needy youngsters, the Arctic League of Elmira calls on 'delivery boys' whose personal incomes often range up to five figures and beyond.

Draw Special Reward

The 'delivery boy' job is coveted by members of the 53-year-old Elmira organization. The men many of whom are Jewish—draw special reward from seeing young faces beam with happiness.

One of the noteworthy aspects of the League's activity is the fact that much of the Christmas work is performed by men of the Jewish faith, which does not observe this Christian holiday.

For example, Ellery Herman, who, with Aaron Stein directed this year's gift-packaging by the B'nai B'rith, has worked with the league for more than 30 years.

Herman's son, Sheldon, has taken part in the Christmas project for 20 years. And Sheldon's son also is taking part in the program.

The league usually raises about $20,000 a year to finance the project. B'nai B'rith, a fraternal organization, handles much of the fund-raising and other phases of the operation, although it has no formal connection with the League.

Is Sole Function

Providing gifts for needy children is the league's sole function. The gifts of toys and clothing—or both—go to children of all faiths and races—except the Jewish religion.

The league, however, is not a religious organization, as Stein made clear today.

It's not a religious matter," he said. "We want to help somebody else out regardless of the cause. It's the same principle as if a dam broke. You wouldn't care who stopped it or what color or creed he was."

Herman put it this way: "If the Jewish faith had a problem in the community, oth-

Old Dutch Yule Pageant Given; 200 Take Part

Old Dutch Church School Christmas pageant was presented Sunday 4 p. m. with over 200 taking part.

It was an original production called A Gift for Jesus by Ruth S. Kershner, director of Christian Education. Each class under the direction of their teacher presented their conception of a gift which they could give to Jesus.

These included Decorating the Church for Christmas, junior class, Mrs. Lloyd Littlefield; Candles for Christmas, second grade, Mrs. Paul Hoveman; Reading to Shut-Ins, juniors, Miss A. Gail Edwards; Flowers for the Sick, first and third grades, the Misses Holly Delaney and Diane Krom; Family Devotions, sixth grade, Mrs. Ray Myers; Decorating a Tree for Shut-Ins, third grade, Mrs. Len Waters; Christmas Caroling to Those Alone, fifth grade, Mrs. Oscar Kirkpatrick; Taking Toys to Hospital Children, fourth grade, Mrs. John Sacco.

Also a Bible for one Without, first grade, Miss Beverly Whitmore; Gifts for our Orphan, Tai Chang, Junior Highs, Mrs. Charles Bouton; and White Gifts (food for Christmas Baskets) presented at the Living Nativity, Senior Highs, Kindergarten 4's and 5's, Harry Anderson, the Mmes. Roy Mayes and David Van Etten.

Each class actually carried out the service illustrated in its skit.

Music was provided by the children's primary and carol choir under the direction of Gordon Bush, organist and choir master. Two junior classes along with the junior and senior high fellowships went Christmas caroling to neighborhood shut-ins and nursing homes, following the program, then met for individual holiday parties.

er men in that community would rally behind them."

And another member, Harold Paltrowitz, summed up his sentiment thusly:

"The Jewish people are just as interested in children as anybody else. Giving a child something is just as important to us."

Paltrowitz noted that several rabbis had taken part and recalled the interest demonstrated by Rabbi James I. Gordon, who left Elmira three years ago.

"He sent in his contribution," Paltrowitz said, "and a letter, telling how much he missed calling out the names of the kids as he did every Christmas for eight years."

Lourdes Cagers Score 57-51 Upset Win Over Kingston High

LOOSE BALL. Mike Eidel of Lourdes and Kingston's Leon Hanna chase loose ball while players from both sides converge on the scene.

Limit Hanna, Spinneweber To 7 Points

By ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

Getting poor performances from Leon Hanna and John Spinneweber, the two "big boys", Kingston High was upset, 57-51, by a hustling Our Lady of Lourdes quintet before a large, noisy crowd last night at the Field House.

In winning their fourth straight verdict, the Warriors held Hanna to three foul shots and limited Spinneweber to a pair of buckets. The winners also took control of the backboards and handed coach Jack Gilligan's Maroon cagers their second loss in four outings.

After trailing at halftime, 28-22, and staying behind most of the third quarter, the plucky Warriors finally caught the home side and moved ahead just at the buzzer on Mike Eidel's deuce. This sent Lourdes into the fourth quarter on the long end of a 40-38 count.

Gary VanEtten, who kept the KHS quintet in contention with a flawless second half performance, hit from outside to tie the score as the final eight minutes of action began.

Basket Exchange

Bob Giordano and VanEtten exchanged baskets and then Brian Bach hit from outside to shove the locals ahead, 44-42, with 5:20 remaining.

Eidel got his club even with two free throws and Giordano put the Warriors ahead with a driving layup. Van Etten then fed Dan Heppner underneath and the KHS ace knotted the count at 46-46.

Mike Antalek's layup was followed by VanEtten's jumper from the key and the scoreboard read, 48-48, with 3:07 to play. It was now a barn burner and the crowd loved it.

The Last Leap

Hanna was fouled with 2:35 to go and he converted one of two attempts to put Kingston ahead, 49-48. It was the last lead the locals enjoyed.

Giordano's layup at the two minute mark, a shortie by Steve Starzyk, two fouls by Gary Gyscek and another charity toss by Starzyk shoved the Warriors six points in front, 55-49, with only 35 seconds left. It was all but over.

Heppner hit from outside for Kingston but Gyscek was fouled and he calmly converted both tosses to clinch the verdict and end a Lourdes losing skein of 10 straight basketball setbacks against Kingston.

The game was actually decided at the foul line. Whereas the KHS cagers made only nine of 20 attempts, Lourdes was successful on 19 of 25 tries.

Coach Gilligan will now try to inject some life into the boys in preparation for the second annual Holiday Tournament, scheduled next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Field House.

New Paltz at Rondout In Key UCAL Tussle

Three games in the UCAL, a trio in the DCSL and one in each of the DUSO City and Village circuits are on tap tonight as the schools close for their holiday hiatus.

The top tilt in the UCAL has New Paltz visiting the Rondout Valley gym for a meeting with the Ganders. The defending champions are seeking their fourth straight verdict.

In other circuit contests, Onteora is at Highland and Pine Bush visits the lair of the unbeaten Marlboro Dukes.

In the DCSL, Lourdes plays at Beacon, Poughkeepsie is at Roosevelt and Wappingers at Arlington.

Newburgh visits Liberty for a DUSO City game, Port Jervis is at Fallsburgh for a village encounter.

Aside from some Christmas holiday tournaments next week, most of the schools won't see action again until after the holiday recess.

Patriots Hoping Huarte Can Fill Parilli's Shoes

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Patriots hoped today that any quarterback problem of the future was settled with the acquisition of former All-American John Huarte to back up aging Babe Parilli.

The 22-year-old Huarte, who commanded a price tag of $200,000 after winning the Heisman Trophy in 1964, was obtained Monday in an American Football League deal which sent veteran pass receiver Jimmy Colclough to the New York Jets.

The Patriots also gave up their No. 4 draft choice in the AFL draft last month. In addition, they reportedly will pay the Jets $50,000 if Huarte sticks next season.

After leading Notre Dame to a 9-1 record last year, Huarte signed with the Jets. However, he didn't see a minute of AFL action.

Huarte spent the first three weeks of New York's preseason training with the College All-Stars, starting in the annual game against Cleveland of the National Football League.

The Jets' other high-priced rookie, Joe (S400,000) Namath, proceeded to nail down the No. 1 quarterback job and Huarte was relegated to the taxi squad. Namath went on to win AFL

Northeastern Team In Hockey Semis

NEW YORK (AP) — Defending champ Northeastern faces St. Lawrence and Cornell tackles Colgate in the semifinal round of the fifth annual Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference's Hockey Festival tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Northeastern, a disappointing 2-3 on the year, meets a strong team in St. Lawrence which beat Boston College, 5-3 in the opening round Sunday. The Laries are 7-2 on the year.

The nightcap brings together Cornell, which has won seven of eight this year, against Colgate, 4-1, which ripped Yale, 8-4, in an opening round match Sunday.

Rookie of the Year honors while Huarte manned a rooftop phone during games.

"I guess I've played less than 30 minutes of pro football—and that was in three exhibitions with the Jets," Huarte said.

"I regard coming to Boston as a golden opportunity, but I don't expect to become first-string quarterback for the Patriots next year unless something happens to Babe Parilli," Huarte said. "Parilli is one of the best in the business."

The 35-year-old Parilli had his troubles as injuries wrecked the Patriots attack early this year. However, he rebounded and directed the club to three straight closing victories.

Figures Belie Bills' Standing

NEW YORK (AP) — There's no question why the San Diego Chargers are in the American Football League championship game Sunday but statistically there may be some wondering about the Buffalo Bills.

While the Western Division champion Chargers finished first in all six offensive and defensive statistical categories, the Eastern champion Bills finished above sixth place only in rushing defense.

The Bills, according to league statistics released today, were eighth in passing, sixth in rushing, seventh in total offense, eighth in pass defense, second in rushing defense and sixth in total defense.

San Diego gained 3,103 yards passing to 2,461 for Buffalo, rushed for 1,998 in comparison to Buffalo's 1,288 and over-all gained 5,101 yards to 3,749 for Buffalo.

Defensively, the Chargers allowed a low of 2,182 yards passing to 3,170 for the Bills, gave

The Shokan-Woodstock tandem of Ralph Wessellmann and Henry Berleth posted an excellent 69 per cent game to take first place in the monthly Master Point tournament of the Glenierie Bridge Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Le Fevre led the East-West side with 62 per cent.

North-South: Dennis Bencher—Ron Benker, Poughkeepsie, 59½ per cent; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pechloff, Kingston, 55 per cent.

East-West: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peck, Woodland, 60 per cent; Dr. John Olivet-Milton Dubin, Kingston, 52 per cent.

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO

Freeman Sports Editor

The Petersen family is one of the noble clans of local bowling history. There are six—Larry (Pop) Petersen, the sire; Larry Jr., Marty, Ray, Bob and Herb Petersen.

The last shall come first in this instance for we believe that when all the returns are in, Herb Petersen will have ranked as the greatest.

A 10-year veteran, he has acquired the finesse, power and know-how to remain one of the city's best for years to come.

At the moment, he is the Invitational Classic's lone 200-average bowler. There has been a mass slump in the city's premier tenpin circuit. If the annual cutoff were to remain at 183, half the league might not make it for the 1966-67 season.

Herb seeks no alibis for the poor showing of the big boys. He concedes the resurfacing operations this past summer may have left the lanes quite "flat" but predicts strong comebacks after the holidays.

"There's no problem hitting the pocket in the Classic," says Petersen. "The lanes don't fall off or run up high. The pins just haven't been falling like they should."

His Share of Rewards:

Petersen has been outstanding on the tenpin trail the past few years. He has a career high of 741 among five "700" triples. His top average was 204 in the Invitational Classic. He owns one "300" score, finished second in the Landgraf Classic in New York. It was worth $2,000.00.

Currently, Herb boasts 200 averages in the Invitational and Mid-City Classics and 195 at Newburgh. His bowling tastes are conventional—a standard 3-finger grip and semi-roller style. He admits only modest success in two ABC tournaments, hopes to improve his record next spring at Rochester.

Petersen's most recent accomplishment was winning the sectional Rheingold TV eliminations at Warwick. In a previous TV show, he was on stage for three weeks.

Herb feels the sport is producing its share of bright new talent. He lists Al North, Bud Lowe, John Schatzel Jr., and Rich Michaelis among the top prospects.

Having bowled with Herb's father, Pop Petersen, for many years during the Golden Era of Kingston tenpins, it is rewarding to see the son of the sire doing so well. And he figures to do much better in the future.

The Eleventh Frame:

There will be no listing of "The Club" in this column or any future columns. Just too many people crashing in these days. Gloria Nagle would just as soon you not mention third game of her recent 451 series. Vince Carpio's 219 was new high in Mid-Hudson Major at Newburgh. Maud Simmons, the Saugerties ace who has been escalating all season fired a career-first 606 on Plaza Quads. She carried her team to new highs of 746 and 2055. Credit Wilder Dawson with two new marks—245 and 616—in Mid-City's Men's. Ben Tiano did it again—862 in Invitational Classic. Credit Larry Pannella with 367-633. Kudos to Dot La Rocca for all-spare 185 and the Comeback Kids—Al Hutton, 157-214-259, and Joe Dittus, 149, 223, 214. Inge Hulsair, career first 516.

Bowler of the Week:

Bowler of the Week was Don Sicker with 715 in the Summit Classic. A tip of the hat to: Phil DeCicco 692, Katly DeCicco 562, Joe Primo 658, Marion Elliott, a robust 594 in IBM. Ernie Bartroff, the bowling patrolman, rocking 670. Up and down fellow: Harry Lowe, 232, 155, 243. Marion Sanford, bopped 591 up Saugerties way. John Finch joined the 7-10 Club. Rich Pasqua, the UCC kegler, topping 828 in the Mid-City Classic. Kay Cambone 566 at New Paltz.

Volleys in the Valley:

Bob Melnick, a Hudson High school bowler, bombed 940 four-some—203, 268, 234, 235. Carries 195 average. John Zudowski (Hudson) 705 and Howard Nott (Newburgh) 737. Frank Bandiero, 1318 six-bagger at Walden. Bob Hoe adding 14 lanes at Mardi-Bob (Poughkeepsie), boosting capacity from 38 lanes to 52. Ladd Valentini, Hyde Park junior bowler, bombed 260-714 in league session. Bob Beal is the new manager of the Holiday Bowl-O-Mat in Wappingers Falls. Karl (Jake) Charter, considered by some the all-time best in mid-Hudson area, not rolling in leagues this year. He plans to participate in several exhibitions and tournaments early next year.

Getting Early Start:

Word from Tony Erena is that the local Moose Lodge is soliciting advertisements for the journal in conjunction with the State Moose championships next spring. All area business enterprises are urged to support the journal. The economic windfall to the city via the tournament is not inconsiderable.

Name Mantle First

Hutch Award Winner

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle has been named winner of the first Hutch Award, it was announced today.

The voting, by major league broadcasters and baseball writers, was based on "the player who best exemplifies the fighting spirit and burning desire of the late Fred Hutchinson."

Hutchinson, former American League pitching star and manager of the Detroit Tigers and Cincinnati Reds, died of cancer Nov. 12, 1964.

Mantle will receive his trophy at the annual dinner of the New York Baseball Writers chapter next Jan. 30.

Alworth, Bell Unanimous AFL All Star Choices

Namath, Snell Fail to Make It

NEW YORK (NEA) — Lance Alworth, the incomparable flanker of the San Diego Chargers and Bobby Bell, in his first year as linebacker with the Kansas City Chiefs, were the only unanimous picks for the All-American Football Association team announced today by the Newspaper Enterprise Association.

This is the coaches' team, selected by the eight head coaches of the AFL, and it again emphasizes the trend toward home-grown products by the young league.

Of the 22 men chosen for the offensive and defensive platoon, 17, including Alworth and Bell, have never appeared in a pro uniform outside the AFL.

It also emphasizes the maturing of the talent in the first season of AFL play, for no rookies qualified on either the first or second units.

Besides the universal acclaim for Alworth on the offense and Bell on the defense, four players received seven of the eight possible first team votes.

Big Year for Kemp
They were Jack Kemp, experiencing his greatest year at quarterback for the championship Buffalo Bills; center Jim Otto of Oakland, a perennial all-leaguer; guard Billy Shaw of Buffalo, who has also made every team; and Ernie Ladd, the most awesome specimen in all of pro football at defensive tackle for the San Diego Chargers.

The biggest surprise this year was the emergence of Willie Frazier of Houston as the top tight end in the league. Willie was signed by the Oilers as a free agent from little Arkansas A&M last year.

The greatest competition was at the split end slot, where veteran Lionel Taylor of Denver was the slim choice over Art Powell of Oakland and Don Maynard of New York.

Tackle Eldon Danenauer of Denver was barely edged by San Diego's Ron Mix, regarded for the last five years as the outstanding offensive interior line man in the AFL. Jim Tyrer of Kansas City retained a tackle berth he won in 1963. He's the big man up front at 292 well-placed pounds.

To join Shaw at guard, Wayne Hawkins of Oakland had to beat off the Houston pair of Bob Taft and Sonny Bishop.

Lowie, Big Man
The backfield running spots were staked out almost from the start by Paul Lowe, the league's leading rusher, and Cookie Gilchrist, the No. 2 man who didn't slacken his pace after being traded from Buffalo to Denver.

Two Kansas City personnel switches paid off with all-league performances this year. Jerry Mays went from tackle to end, and there was no one close to him in the voting. Bell went from end to corner linebacker and showed amazing range.

For the other defensive end, San Diego's Earl Faison was a narrow victor over Ben Davidson, the mustachioed giant on the Oakland forward wall.

Biggest surprise in the defensive voting was the strong competition received by Buffalo's Tom Sestak at tackle from Buck Buchanan of Kansas City. One vote separated them.

Nick Buoniconti of Boston and Mike Stratton of Buffalo were easy picks as Bell's linebacking buddies. In the secondary, Dave Grayson of Oakland at halfback and George Salmes of Buffalo at safety were clear cut. But, Leslie Duncan, the Charger's brilliant punt return man, needed all his zip to stay ahead of Buffalo corner back Butch Byrd.

Strong side safety Dainard Paulson, the lone New York entry on the first team, was challenged by two men, Johnny Robinson of Kansas City and Ken Graham of San Diego.

As expected, San Diego polled the most places on the team, three on offense. Buffalo was a shade behind with five all-league selections.

They'll settle the issue of class where it counts most — in the AFL championship game.

Eight Finalists For Kodak Award
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Eight coaches, including Duffy Daugherty of top-ranked Michigan State, were selected today as finalists by the American Football Coaches Association for the Kodak Coach of the Year award.

Besides Daugherty, those nominated were Bob Blackman of Dartmouth, Dick Colman of Princeton, Earle Edwards of North Carolina State, Doug Dickey of Tennessee, Bob Devaney of Nebraska, Frank Broyles of Arkansas, and Tommy Prothro of UCLA.

Barry Paces Warrior Win Over the 76ers
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Rookie Rick Barry scored 37 points and took 25 rebounds Monday night in pacing San Francisco past the Philadelphia 76ers 124-116 and breaking a three-game Warriors' losing streak in the National Basketball Association.

Although Wilt Chamberlain got 45 points for the 76ers, their usually high-scoring guard Hal Greer was held by Al Attles in three field goals, all in the first quarter.

No other NBA games were scheduled.

Weather, Seating Playoff Factors

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Brown prefers Baltimore's weather and seating capacity to Green Bay's but insists the Cleveland Browns don't care whether they play the Colts or Packers in the Jan. 2 NFL title game.

"From the weather standpoint and stadium capacity I prefer Baltimore," said the Cleveland fullback who was here Monday to accept another award.

"But we'll probably be up there in Green Bay. A frozen ground takes away individual skills. A runner always hopes for the best weather. But I don't care. It's one game and you shoot the works."

"If we play Baltimore without Johnny Unitas, the Colts will have nothing to lose. If we win, people will say 'You wouldn't have beaten them with Unitas.' If we lose, they'll say a crippled team beat us."

"I hope they are strong as possible. As far as I am concerned it would be all right to let them use Ed Brown but that is up to the owners. After all, we beat them last year with Unitas and everybody. We can do it again if we play our game."

Concedes Problem
Brown conceded that it would be a bit difficult preparing for a game without knowing the opponent until Sunday after the Packer-Colt playoff for the Western title in Green Bay. Cleveland has clinched the Eastern Conference title.

"It doesn't make so much difference to the offense," he said. "But the defense might have some problems, knowing how to prepare."

Brown didn't have much to say about the fight with Joe Robb at St. Louis Sunday that resulted in both players being thrown out of the game.

"He hit me across the face and I retaliated," said Brown. "The referee was real quick because Robb and I had shook hands already."

Asked if he thought the expulsion cost him the scoring title in his touchdown race with rookie

Top Ten Upsets Looming Ahead

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
UCLA's defending national champions, victims of the latest shuffle in college basketball's power struggle, can expect company before the next accounting.

No sooner had the weekly ratings been adjusted Monday night, with Duke clinging to the No. 1 spot and UCLA off the roll for the first time in three years, than pot shots knocked off two more members of the Top Ten.

Houston, paced by sophomore Elvin Hayes, surprised Providence, No. 7 in The Associated Press poll, 102-89 while Southern Illinois went on a 24-1 spurt in the second half and started eighth-ranked Wichita 89-68.

Height Paid Off
Providence, which had won its first five starts, couldn't cope with Houston's height advantage on the Cougars' court. The 6-foot-9 Hayes did the heaviest damage with 33 points and led a 20-8 spurt early in the second half that shot Houston ahead to stay 72-63. The Cougars out-rebounded Providence 22-4 during the decisive rally.

Jim Walker led the Friars with 30 points, hitting on 10 of 15 shots from the floor.

At Carbondale, Ill., Southern Illinois turned a 47-42 deficit into a commanding 66-48 bulge by rolling off 13 and 11 points in succession around a single free throw by Wichita. Boyd O'Neal and Clarence Smith each scored six points and George McNeil four in the SIU spurt.

O'Neal topped Southern Illinois, the nation's No. 3 small-college team, with 22 points and 15 rebounds. The Shockers, who were unbeaten in four previous games, lost the battle of the boards 68-37.

Minnesota's Clark, taking over the scoring slack for Lou Hudson, who sat out the game with an injured hand, shot 15 for 25 from the field as the Gophers built a 17-point margin with four minutes to go and held on. Dorie Murray of Detroit tied the school record with 44 points and hauled in 34 rebounds, seven more than the Minnesota team.

Eddie Biedenbach poured in 15 points in the first half — including a run of nine straight — as North Carolina State rolled to a 15-point early lead and buried Georgia Tech 93-69 for a 4-1 season mark.

St. Bonaventure connected on 60 per cent of its shots while routing St. Joseph's of Indiana 122-76 for its fifth victory against a single loss and Nebraska boosted its record to 6-1 by edging Stanford 71-67.

Duke Holds Lead
Duke, which whipped UCLA twice two weeks ago and improved its record to 6-1 with a come-from-behind victory over Virginia last Saturday, received 28 of 40 first-place votes in The AP poll of sportswriters and broadcasters. UCLA, which slipped to 3-3 when beaten by Cincinnati, fell out of the Top Ten after placing eighth a week ago.

Rugged Training Pays Off In Gemini Recovery Mission

ABOARD USS WASP (AP) — The rugged training of the Navy's underwater demolition men teaches them to stay cool in unusual situations — and that's just what Danny Fraser did on the Gemini 7 recovery operation.

Fraser, a soft spoken member of underwater demolition team 21, went through his paces without a hitch Saturday. He played a major role in the flawless operation that brought Astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. out of their space ship after a historic two weeks flight.

Went Real Fine
"It went real fine," the 23-year-old Fraser said of the recovery. "There were good conditions. The helicopter got us in real close. The seas were calm."

Fraser and two other swimmers wearing black rubber diving suits and air tanks, jumped from a jet turbine helicopter hovering 10 feet above the water.

Within minutes they had attached the flotation collar, also dropped from the copter.

"It went easier than some practices," he said.

Fraser prepared for the recovery with two practices using a dummy spacecraft at the team's headquarters in Little Creek, Va., and four practices off the USS Wasp.

Hooked Collars

Fraser and teammate David Sutherland hooked the flotation collar while their team leader Lt. (J.G.) Chris Bent made a radio contact with Borman and Lovell.

The astronauts then crawled out of their tiny cabin and into a life raft.

"They looked pasty and white," Fraser said, "apparently from the long confinement. Otherwise they were in good condition and needed no help in getting out of Gemini 7."

Fraser said he exchanged greetings with the astronauts and shook their hands.

The astronauts then were hoisted into the helicopter for a ride to the carrier.

Stayed With Capsule
All three swimmers stayed with the spacecraft until the Wasp came alongside and hauled it aboard.

"Everybody had a job to do and went and did it," Fraser said, explaining the speed and perfection of the complicated recovery job.

Fraser was a member of the backup recovery swim team for Thursday's Gemini 6 pickup but was not called into action.

A graduate of Central High School in Lyndonville, N.Y., he joined the Navy in 1962. After a period with the Navy Seabees, he volunteered and was accepted for the rigorous underwater demolition training.

Away 9 Months
In the past year Fraser has been out of the United States for nine months, undergoing training in the Mediterranean and near Puerto Rico.

Since joining team 21, he has learned to jump into the ocean from fast moving boats, from low flying helicopters and by parachute from airplanes.

His training also included blowing up reefs and making practice underwater attacks on ships, often at night.

Fraser has one year left in a four-year Navy hitch. When he leaves the Navy, he said, "I'd like to get in the same type of work I'm in now — offshore oil or something like that."

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. David H. Fraser, live on Platten Road in Lyndonville. His bride of six months lives at 4124 Ewell Road, Virginia Beach, Va.

Forecasters . . .
diction of a green Christmas for the Midwest. "Whoever hears of a fish fibbing?" he asked.

He makes his predictions according to how deep the perch are running. Kyrtis says the fish are getting deeper and deeper and "that means it's going to turn cold about two weeks hence."

Louis Rubin of Richmond, Va., who has gained national fame for his long-range predictions based on volcanic eruptions, says this will be a colder than usual winter.

Down in Crab Orchard, Tenn., Helen Lane, correspondent for the Crossville Chronicle, makes her forecasts on the number of snows in Tennessee from the number of fogs in the Cumberland plateau area during August.

Snow Tied to Frog
"If it snows for all the fogs," she writes, "we will have to tie a string to the coal pile in order to find it this winter. Indications of a rough winter are thick corn husks, low-hanging, hornets nests, heavier than usual leaves on the tree. These low-hanging leaves are nature's way of providing protection for spring flowers."

Tubby Toms, outdoor writer for the Indianapolis News, predicts a normal "run-of-mill" winter. His clues include loose corn husks and an equal abundance of brown and black caterpillars. He said if there were more black ones that would mean a nasty winter ahead.

Hope in Bangkok
BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Comedian Bob Hope arrived in Bangkok shortly before midnight Sunday for his 14th annual Christmas tour for U.S. troops overseas.

Hope was accompanied by a troupe of entertainers, including actress Carroll Baker, band-leader Les Brown, singer Anita Bryant and Miss U.S.A. 1965, Diane Lynn Bats.

Hope is to give five performances in Thailand, the first Tuesday at Takli air base 220 miles north of Bangkok. The troupe will go to South Viet Nam Christmas Eve.

Gulf States Get Taste of Winter, Northern Style

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cold weather chilled some of the nation's normally mild sections today in advance of the arrival of the winter season tonight at 8:41 p.m. EST.

Freezing weather dipped into areas in the Southeast, with near freezing in parts of the Gulf states. It also was a little chilly in sections of the Southwest desert region.

The coldest weather, below zero and near zero, was in northern New England and in parts of the Great Basin region in the Far West. The mercury dropped to 25 below zero Monday at Wanakena, N.Y., in the Adirondacks.

The snow covering across most of the nation was reported generally light. Heaviest amounts, up to 30 inches, were in the western Adirondack foothills in New York State and in mountain areas in the West.

In the Midwest, snow measured 19 inches at Houghton, Mich., in the extreme northern Upper Peninsula. Amounts in other parts of the Midwest were generally light.

Snow fell during the night and early morning across broad areas from the Great Lakes region into the middle Atlantic states. Heaviest amounts appeared to be in West Virginia, with two inches in a six-hour period at Beckley, and one inch across most other areas. Washington reported light snow during the morning, the first of the season. Light snow also fell in Philadelphia.

Showers spread slowly through Washington State and into sections of Oregon during the morning. Heavy fog shrouded the central valley of California and the Weather Bureau reported visibility dropped to nearly zero in many areas, disrupting air travel and slowing auto traffic.

Prince Charles Winner

GORDONSTOWN, Scotland (AP)—Prince Charles is the winner of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award, established by his father, Prince Philip.

The 17-year-old crown prince won the award after a year-long test, said the headmaster, Robert Chew. The award is not competitive, but is based on performance. The duke once was a pupil at the school, famed for its emphasis on developing self-reliance through physical training.

In February, Prince Charles will leave for Australia to attend the Geelong School.

King's Allowance Cut

ATHENS (AP) — King Constantine offered to take a cut in his allowance Monday—and the Greek government promptly took him up on it.

The king suggested his royal allowance of $580,000 a year be cut by $66,000 to help the nation's wavering economy.

The government at the same time increased taxes on cars, personal incomes and business deals beginning Jan. 1.
